

Understanding the dangers of 5G and Chemtrails

By Luc Vervliet, engineer and molecular biologist

Preface

History and our experiences tell us every day that our decisions have an important influence on our surroundings. The same is true of our decisions on the evolution of technology.

Since the first industrial revolution, a little over 200 years ago, we have been confronted with an industrial development guided by capitalism: first make profit and then we will see whatever they may try to make us believe. It's not the inventors or the discoverers of the technologies that are responsible for the evolution we know, but those who want to exploit these technologies for their own benefit and who, through lobby and Astroturf techniques, try at all costs to introduce the technologies that interest them as necessary and inevitable to the economic evolution and to be so-called profitable for everyone.

We are all co-responsible for the evolution we know, but some people are much more than others. Greater responsibility is found among politicians who are informed by experts and authorities in this area. However, we must know that large corporations and multinationals are primarily focusing their profit and they will not hesitate to juggle data and impose their laws.

As an engineer and molecular biologist I try to play my role in informing you of the dangers and their consequences. I'm aware of the economic stakes, it's about tens, even hundreds of billions of Euro of economic benefit, but that does not compare with the well-being and health of humans and nature at the whole.

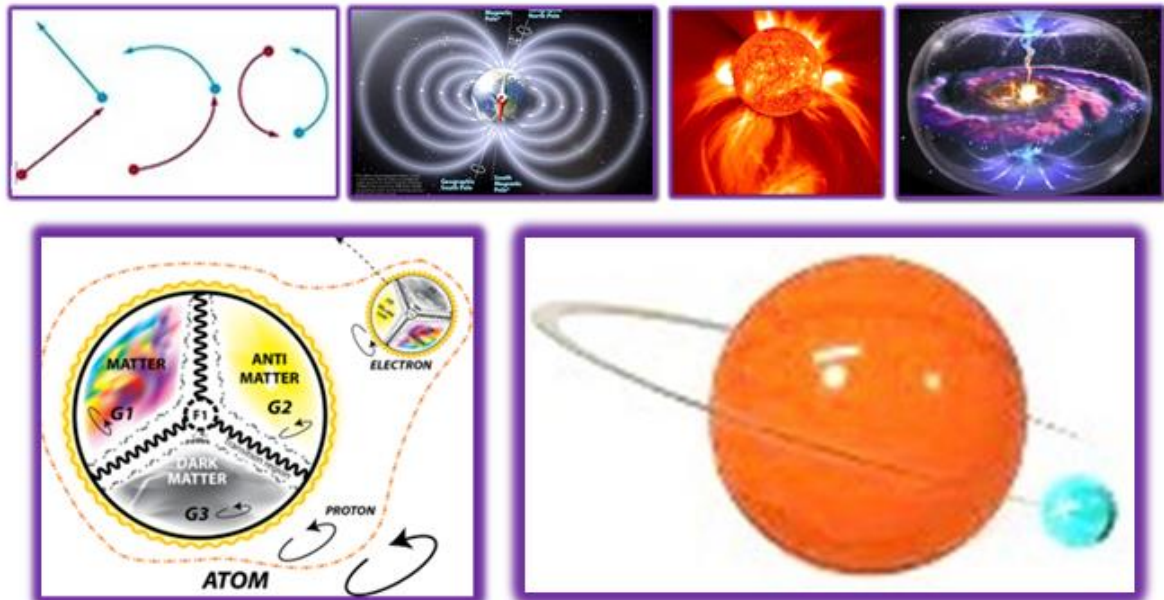

I do not want to point or judge anyone. On the other hand, I want to sound the alarm before the situation deteriorates in disaster. We are allowed to make mistakes, but we must correct them immediately to avoid dramas. Many people are already living in pain and I thank you in advance for taking into account the information I am going to give you.

Understanding the functioning of the body

I first want to introduce you to the functioning of the body in a simplified way so that you can more easily understand the impact that waves can have on the body. I rely on the information at my disposal.

The universe consists of a set of plasma magnetic fields. These fields have an influence on each other. By weakening, these magnetic fields can become matter according to certain conditions, according to the gravitational and magnetic fields which prevail. These fields attract or repel each other and are in a permanent state of 'motion'. Dynamic magnetic fields of the same magnitude bend so that they form a field of circular force. These circular fields can be seen observing magnets, earth, sun, planets, stars, galaxies and atoms.

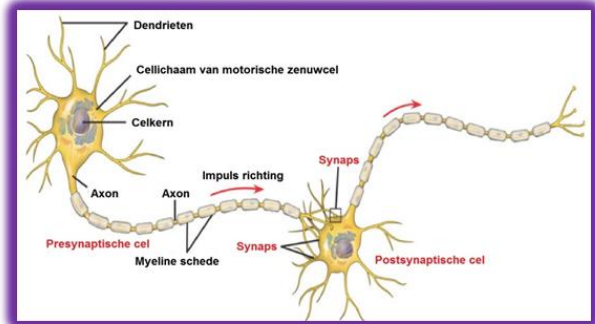

Dynamic magnetic fields can change to other forms of existence: antimatter, dark matter and matter. Finally, this explains why in chemistry, we speak about attraction or repulsion between the atoms (a set of protons and electrons): Anions and Cations.

From these magnetic fields, a wide range of material can be created, such as: hydrogen, nitrogen, oxygen, carbon. These four elements mentioned form the basis of amino acids, the life we know on earth. Of these four elements, carbon is the only element, here on earth, that comes in solid form. The other three elements are gases. All of this has to do with the magnetic situation we have on the earth and the conditions present in the atmosphere. But nothing prevents that in the universe the same conditions can be created.

Intelligence lies in the storage of information. Carbon as such we know is a very good conductor (graphite). When the magnetic dynamic fields, which create the carbon, are subjected to a different configuration, it is possible that they generate carbon with other physical characteristics, for example the carbon can become a very good insulator (the diamond). Some will say that it is because of high pressure that the diamond is created. But the pressure is due to what? Gravitation and magnetic fields that are omnipresent.

Our brain is mainly composed of carbon. It is interesting to note that the carbon then acts as a conductor or as an insulator depending on the influence of the magnetic fields that act on it. Computer specialists immediately understand the principle of the bit system: insulator - conductor, or 0 - 1, "off" - "on". Based on this principle, our brain can store a lot of information and process it at a high speed. Everything about our nervous system works on the same principle. The nerves themselves function as conductors, the myelin around acts as an insulator, so that no short circuit or loss of power can occur. If there is a 'short circuit', the information from our brain is sent to other places than originally planned and the stomach is usually the central receiver of any misplaced information.

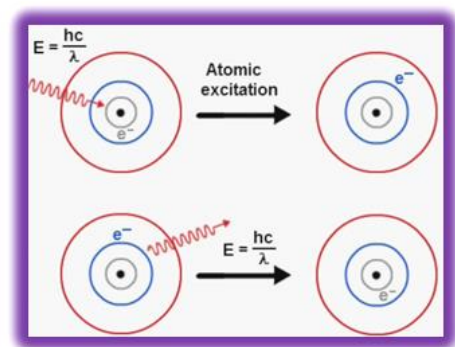

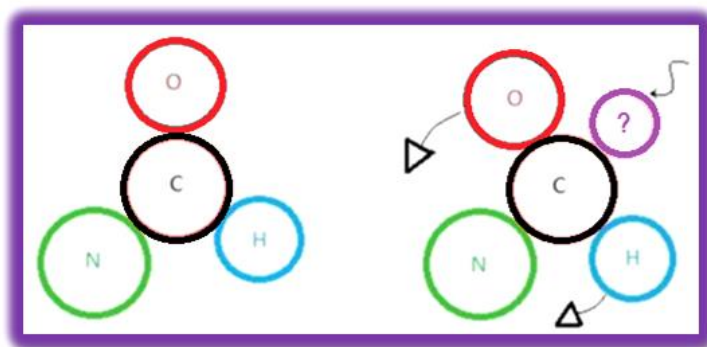

Our body is a large collection of dynamic magnetic fields and as soon as a disturbing field occurs, whether in the form of stress, electromagnetic fields, food or any other, it destabilizes the dynamic magnetic fields that were in equilibrium, resulting in other 'reactions' or 'constructions' than normally expected, what we define in our usual language as disease, disorders, cancer ...

Not only physical abnormalities can result, but also mental disorders. The fact that we have in our world a strongly materialized comfort, many 'magnetic fields' act on our body and it is very understandable that people are confronted with physical and psychic problems.

When we talk about magnetic fields, we also talk about the waves they produce and some waves are beneficial, while others are devastating.

Microwaves denature molecules and therefore also biological molecules, as indicated by the images below :

Research and observations

Dr. Bernard Blanc of the Institute of Biochemistry at the University of Lausanne and Dr. Hans Hertel, who is connected to the Research Institute of Environmental Biology at Wattenwil, made a review in 1989 of the effect of a magnetron on different foods and the consequences of this diet for the quality of human blood.

Microwaves cause molecular damage

Eating prepared foods in the microwave leads to inflammation in the body. The blood of people who ate microwave-heated food showed a decrease in haemoglobin and cholesterol values. More important, they revealed a higher level of white blood cells, which causes a disease called leucocytosis.

Microwaves release carcinogens

https://www.psiram.com/de/index.php/Hans_Ulrich_Hertel

Of course, disturbing the industry that saw its benefit at risk reacted and stifled this report. Dr. Blanc, threatened with exclusion from the medical profession, withdrew his statement. On the other hand, Dr. Hertel persisted and after an exhausting legal battle, Swiss Justice recognized the advanced version. Of course, this is not mentioned in the media.

We can of course deny these scientific observations, but they nevertheless remain scientific observations. And then other similar observations have been made in the world of clinics and hospitals. Below is Dr. Mercola's newsletter:

<https://www.mercola.com/article/microwave/hazards2.htm>

The effects on microwave-heated breast milk were also sought. John Kerner, M.D. and Richard Quin, MD, Stanford University have stated that "heating human milk in microwaves, even at a low level, can destroy some of its ability to fight disease."

When radio waves are strongly present, the amount of small negative ions in the air decreases sharply and the number of positively charged ions increases

In what does this result ?

During a long and heavy shortage of small negatively charged ions (1-4 nanometers in size), the body's natural defense mechanism diminishes and depressive tendencies are announced. In the case of a permanent excess of positively charged ions, aggression takes over. In the cities and in the traffic where people are almost constantly invaded by the waves, and not only radio waves, but also GSM, DECT, WiFi, GPS, 3G and 4G and radar waves, etc., we note a sharp rise in the number of people suffering from depression and burnout and other physical disorders such as lack of concentration, autism, fibromyalgia, etc. ...

Large amounts of negatively charged ions can promote healing of the body, because positively-charged bacteria, viruses, and other health-damaging microorganisms are literally neutralized due to the large mass of negative charged ions. So radio waves have a negative effect on our health.

	neg. ions	pos. ions	total

Dr. Manfred Doepp, a specialist in the field, carefully explains how radio waves can affect our brains. People who live in the middle of nature, out of any wave violence, have better contact with their subconscious. Urban dwellers are more materialistic by nature. Due to excessive use of mobile phones, DECT phone, WiFi, GPS, etc., the emotional part of our brains is slowly but surely blocked, which changes the human being into a zombie ... and the worst, people do not perceive this slow change. For them everything is still normal

In September 2012, I had a conversation with Mr. Konstantin Meyl about scalar waves and electromagnetic waves. During this conversation, Professor Meyl explained to me that he was contacted by the Swiss authorities to analyze the cause of the accident that took place in the tunnel near Sierre in Switzerland with Belgian bus whose balance sheet counted 28 dead, including 22 children.

https://www.rtbf.be/info/belgique/detail_un-car-belge-accidente-en-suisse-28-morts-dont-22-enfants?id=7729705

During his visit on the site, he found there were no antennas for the mobile phone in the tunnel and thus he believes that the children's mobile phones were all searching for a connection with the antennas and that sudden clustering of scalar and electromagnetic waves could have disturbed the driver's brain. Of course, this version was not retained, but the Swiss authorities have immediately installed antennas in the tunnel.

Below you can find the video of an international conference held in Germany on media censorship in the scientific world. The guest: Prof. Dr. Ing. Konstantin Meyl

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aNwax-eMbOg>

The content of the whole conference can be summarized in a few words: Scientists denounce anomalies and dangerous effects and when politicians are approached, they transmit the information to other 'experts' who completely deny the effects denounced and by this fact politicians have a clear conscience and do nothing.

An extensive report of the Bio Initiative Working Group, published in 2007 and completed in 2012, which analysed a total of more than 3,000 independent scientific papers on the effects of waves.

Conclusion : Exposure to electromagnetic waves is responsible for a significant increase in the risk of cancer, sleep disturbance, genotoxic effects (alteration of gene heritage) and cataracts. The meta-analysis also mentions links between high-voltage lines and childhood leukaemia, brain tumours and Alzheimer's disease !

Already in 2007, the World Health Organization (WHO) recommended not to expose children to electromagnetic waves. In 2011, it even classified radio-electromagnetic fields into category 2B possible carcinogens, just like lead and DDT !

In the near future we will also be imposed the smart meter. New features based on radio equipment to communicate with different household devices in your home will massively increase the electromagnetic fields inside our homes. We won't be safe anywhere.

Since 1988, Dr. Leif Salford, neuro surgeon, and his research team have exposed thousands of rats to microwave radiation from a cell phone. This research of more than 20 years has resulted in radiation not only damaging the blood-brain barrier and even at much lower powers than a traditional cell phone. Dr. Salford and his team also noted memory problems, changes in the genetic system, and other biological effects due to radio waves

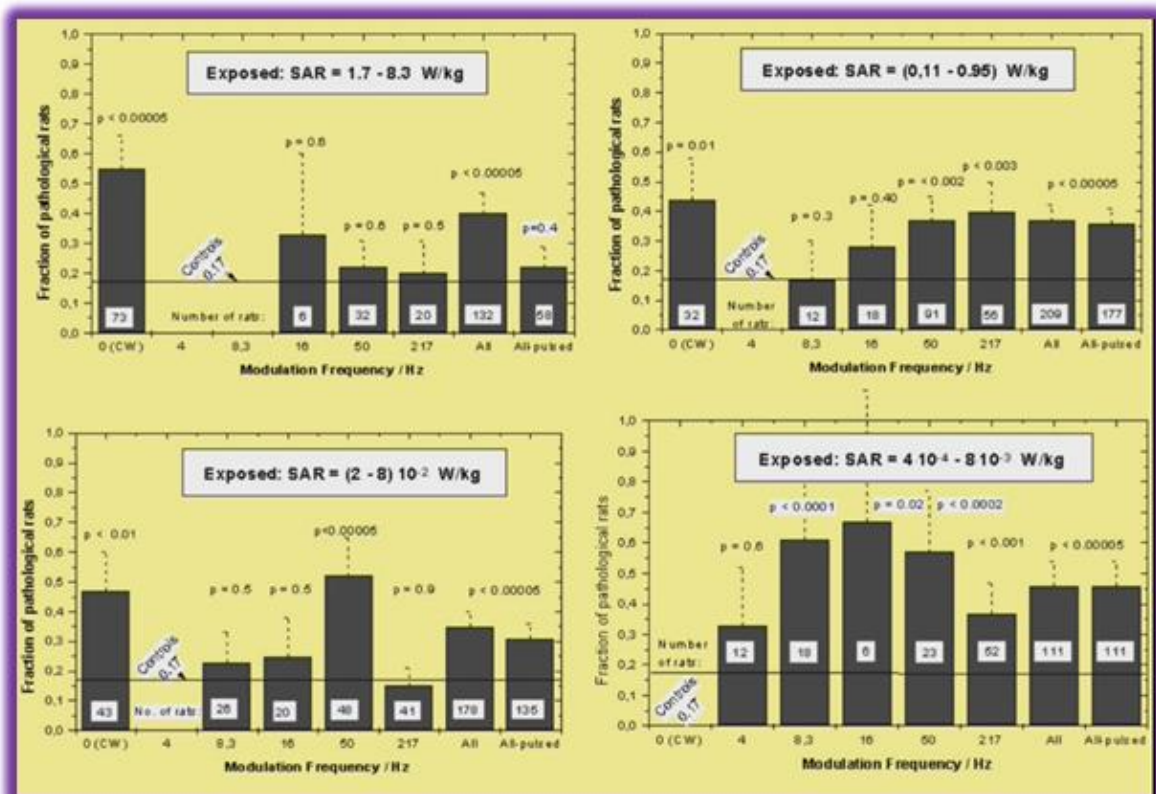

This was the largest biological control to date. Nowadays, almost two-thirds of the world's population involuntarily plays the role of guinea pig everywhere in the world. This means that it is no longer possible to find reference people to control the effects, because everyone is already contaminated. The situation is therefore extremely serious and urgent.

His entire file was given to the WHO ... where it remained in the shade!

For those interested, below the link to the presentation on video

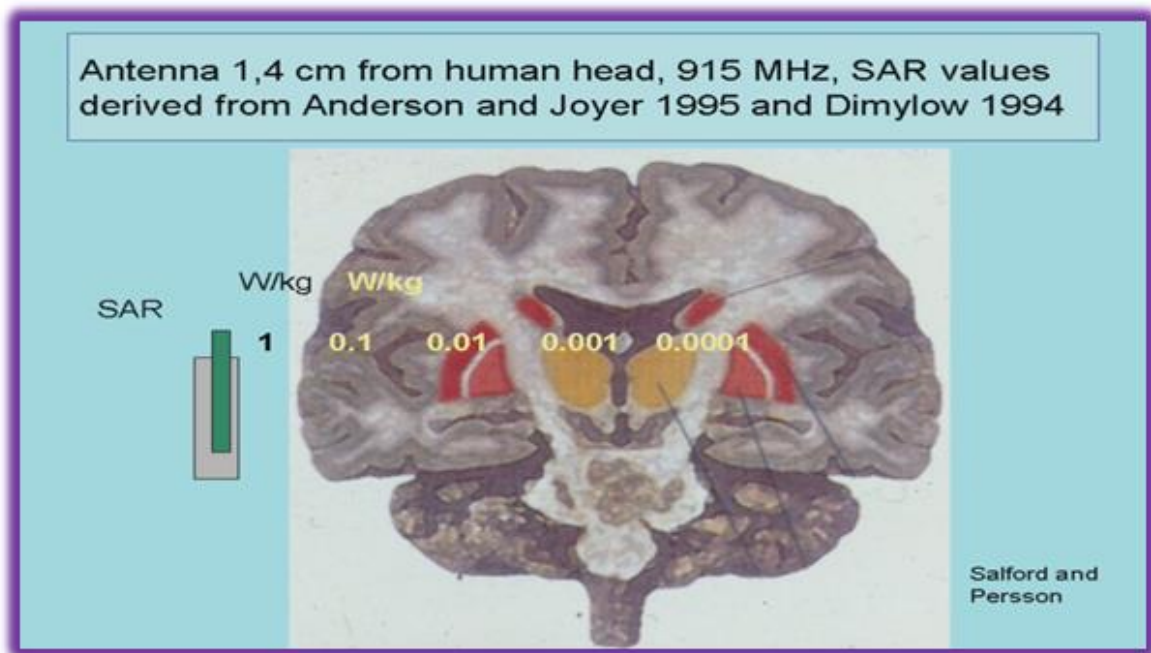

<http://phiremedical.org/electromagnetic-fields-and-leakage-of-the-blood-brain-barrier-dr-leif-salford/>

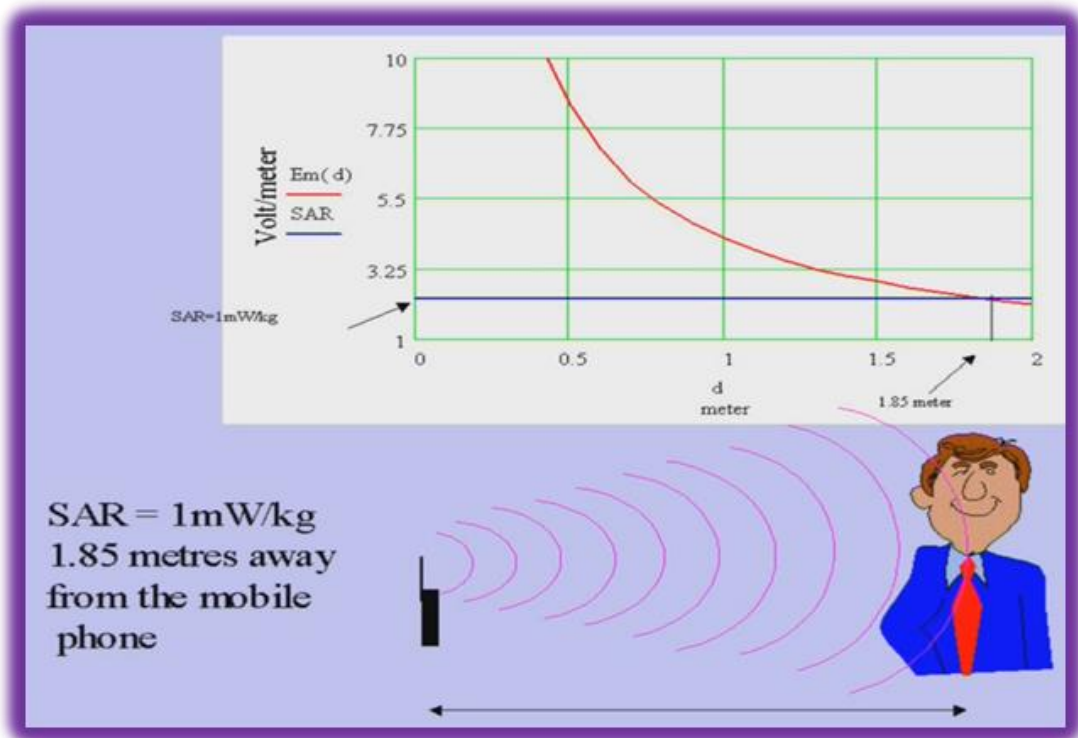

The ionosphere in which we live is only 80km high and where until 1940 there were only Big Bang waves that reached the ground and ionized the particles in the air. Today this ionosphere is flooded by microwaves antennas, mobile phones and satellites, namely 10^{11} to 10^{18} more than before 1940. 10^{11} means 100 billion times more and 10^{18} means you multiply the previous number by 10 million, to give you an idea of the amplification of the intensity to which we are subjected daily.

The different barriers of natural protection of the brain, testicles, eyes, etc. can no longer protect the organ sufficiently by blocking the direct contact with the blood and leaks of blood to these bodies appear and whose importance is related to the intensity of microwaves. This means that the functioning of the organs in question deteriorates in proportion to the intensity of the microwaves to which the organs are subjected. Finally, this results in different tumors.

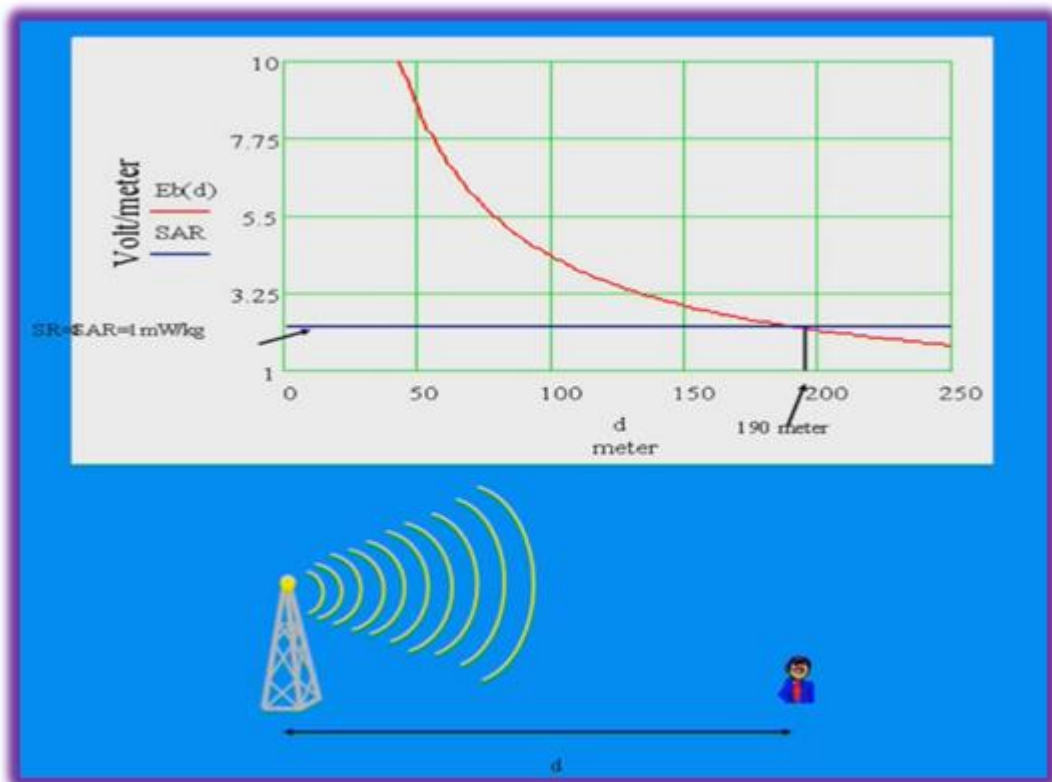

The image below explains the sensitivity of different parts of the brain: Take the example of the traditional mobile phone that emits at 1W / kg. The brain's cortex is sensitive from 0.1W/kg and the more we point to the center of the brain, the more that the area becomes sensitive and that it does not need more than 0.001W/kg (one milli Watt/kg) to achieve serious long-term consequences.

In order not to exceed 1milliW/kg, the mobile phone should be kept at a distance of 1.85m from the ear as shown in the diagram below. Most people literally stick the mobile phone to the ear and in the medium term the first indications of cancer will manifest. Some people are more sensitive to microwaves than others

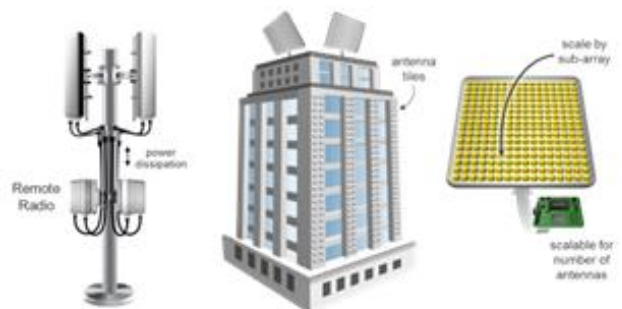

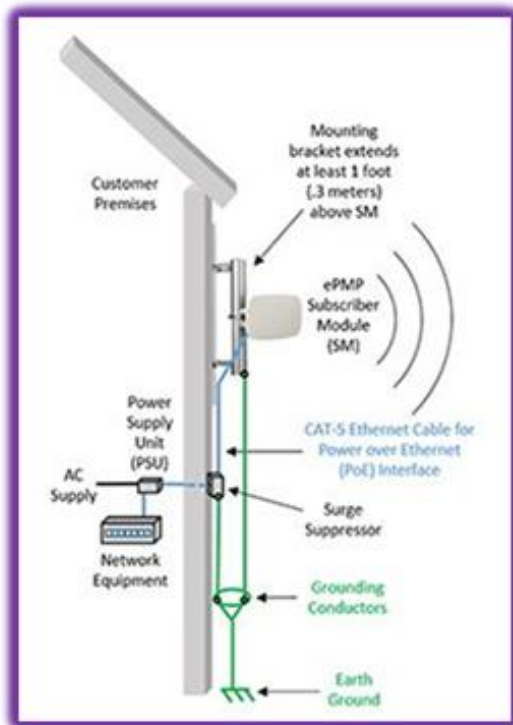

And when it comes to antennas for communicating with mobile phones, Dr. Salford's chart states that a minimum distance of 190m must be kept to not exceed 1mW / kg

As already announced, there are people who are more sensitive than others. In 2010, it is announced that more than 3% of the population already suffers from hypersensitivity to the radio waves. For less sensitive people, difficult to understand. These numbers refer to 3G.

With the advent of 5G, the situation will get worse. In order to function properly, the 5G antennas must be located much lower and at shorter distances from each other. An antenna every 100m. Each living being will be flooded by radio waves at much shorter distances: from 50m as the absolute maximum up to 10m.

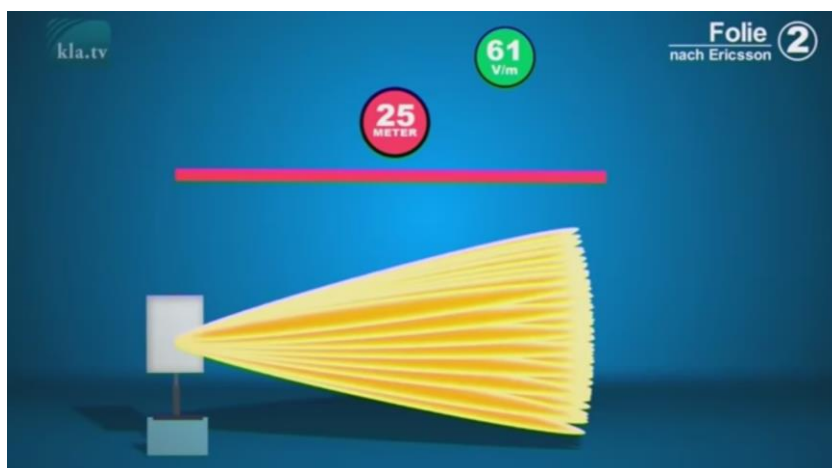

The accepted official standard limit is 6V/m at 25m. We now go to 14.5V/m at 25m as acceptable intensity to meet the demand of the operators.
Here is an announcement to let us know ... with a beautiful misleading smile:

The screenshot shows a news article from 'Trends Tendances'. The title is 'Accord final pour déployer la 5G à Bruxelles'. The article text states: 'Les normes vont être revues à la hausse pour permettre de déployer la technologie 5G en Région bruxelloise, a confirmé la ministre bruxelloise de l'Environnement Céline Fremault au journal L'Echo. Un accord a été trouvé entre la Région et les trois opérateurs télécoms. La norme d'émission de 14,5 volts par mètre a été retenue, contre 6 V/m actuellement.' The article is dated 23/10/18 and includes social media sharing icons and a 'Lire plus tard' button. Below the text is a photograph of a woman taking a selfie in a city square.

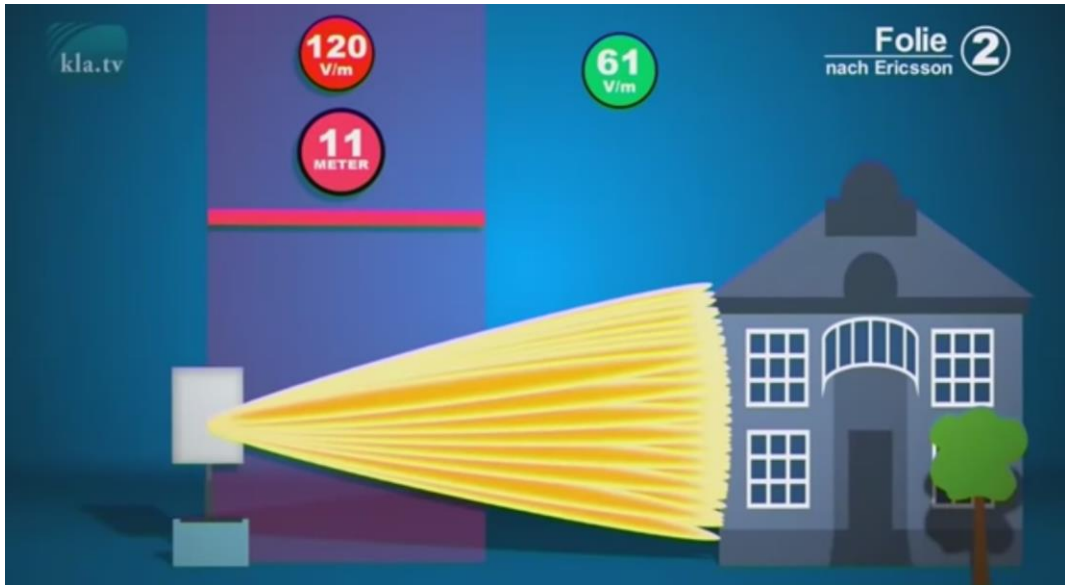

But there is more..

The multinationals are deceiving us by hiding the real functioning of 5G.

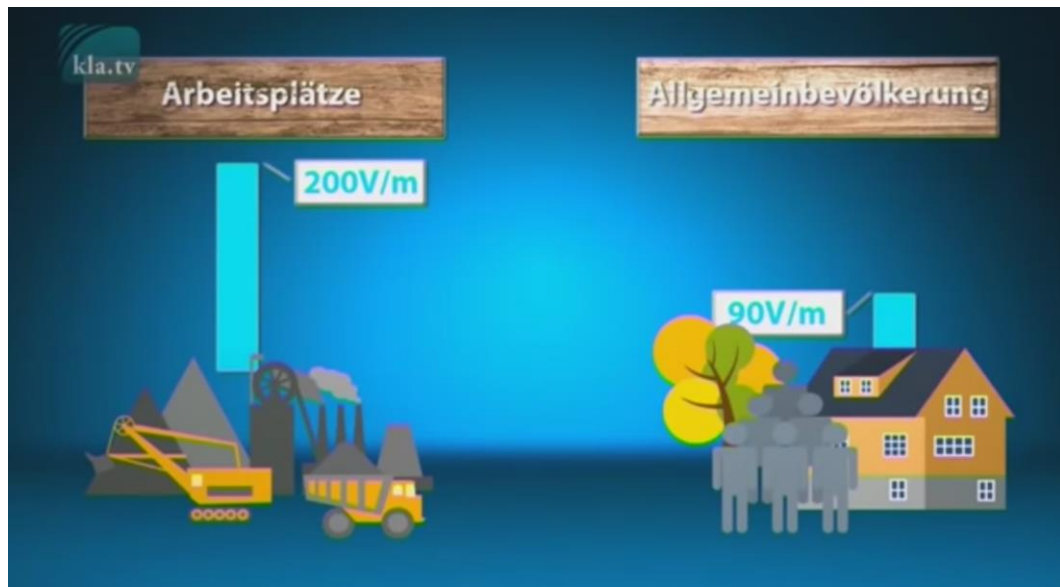

Unlike previous systems, the 5G system uses 64 beam emitters at the same time (8 out of 8) to dramatically increase information throughput: 100 times more data at 100 times faster speed.

According to the information of the manufacturer Ericsson 61V/m are necessary to work well at 25m where before 6V/m was admitted. This is 10 times more. A maximum of only 7 minutes is allowed at 61V/m. But at a distance of 11m (antennas lower and closer) we reach 120V/m. However, with the antennas 5G it is not excluded that people can stay even closer to the antenna than 11m.

To respond to this change, the ICNIRP, a private organization, has adapted the standards and from now on in offices it is accepted to go up to 200V/m and in homes up to 90V/m. Thus operators officially meet the standards for justice. The WHO will accept these indications as the standards to follow !!

Britain's First 5G Court Case and the People Won

Home / Health & science / Britain's First 5G Court Case and the People Won

Mark Steele, a 5G campaigner, has been highlighting the dangers of a secret 5G rollout by Gateshead Council where residents are complaining of increased illness and Cancer in the affected area. There's enough evidence to conclude the new smart 5G arrays on the top of new LED lampposts emit Class 1 Radiation frequencies and should be treated as a danger to the Public. Gateshead Council ignorantly rebutted clear evidence and created false allegations on social media posts and printed leaflets stating that Mark Steele is spreading Pseudo Science and that the arrays are not dangerous or 5G:

"Please be assured that there is no scientific basis or credible evidence for any of these scare stories about street lights causing cancer and other illnesses."

They misused Police Powers to gag Mark Steele and yesterday he left a free man and Gateshead Council to fork out £11k of taxpayers money to cover the court cost amounting to woeful ignorance. In Court, none of the Council Officers could explain what 5G is; and their leading Government expert refused to attend the Court hearing. In conclusion, the Judge refused to gag Mark, stating:

"The public have a right to know."

The secret 5G rollout issue in Gateshead is now officially of public interest and will be treated as a landmark case for other people to start using this Court's ruling to challenge their Councils. We know Surrey, Westminster and Luton all have these toxic Microwave EMF arrays installed on their new LED streetlights. We now know even if these arrays are currently 2G, 3G or 4G they can be 5G enabled by fitting a 'lens' that focuses the frequency.

The Judge declared Mark Steele as a credible expert and engineer on EMF and GSM technologies, which proves Gateshead Council are liable for corruption, misleading the public, making people ill and attempting to discredit Mark Steele and all others such as Smombie Gate fighting 5G rollouts.

Councils are struggling at the moment, over 50% are almost bankrupt because over half of their resources are being spent on the increase of Adult Social Care, so any supplier proposal with the promise of more revenue is irresistible.

Smart City companies are going into Councils with amazing futuristic presentations detailing the first step, which is to install the 5G infrastructure, i.e. the lampposts on streets and motorways.

The benefits will be 24/7 Police surveillance that sees through walls; smart road signs; 4k live streaming on the move; driverless vehicles and public transport; mobile virtual reality; mobile augmented reality; and a fast connection for Elon Musk's new brain implant called the Neuralink giving people the internet inside their mind. All these features are all a wet dream for Councils who will be the first ones to become Smart Counties because they will be able to increase taxes and the local economy in theory will thrive.

Who is paying for these 5G rollouts? Who's given consent on behalf of the People? Who has done research to prove the new infrastructure's safety?

As usual, these important issues are being rubbished by the media and beneficiaries to big business. But they'll soon see our wrath, as we now this ruling. All Hell is going to break loose in Great Britain and we're going to take the fight to them. We will NOT be silenced, and you will not wilfully poison our bodies and our families bodies with Class 1 radiation - WE DO NOT CONSENT.

Mark Steele of <https://www.savesnow.org.uk> has made this a big part of his life. It's people like Mark and all of you who get involved that make a difference to our lives.

5G And The IOT: Scientific Overview Of Human Health Risks

5G is the term used to describe the next-generation of mobile networks beyond the 4G LTE mobile networks commonly used today. 5G is intended to be the technology that allows the Internet of Things (IoT) to exist and tie all internet connected devices together.

Currently there is no standard for 5G networks in place and it will be a combination of a variety of frequencies and modulations. Industry is developing exactly what 5G will be as the standard has not been set yet. It is assumed that 5G networks will not become commercially available until 2020 but several cities are rolling out 5G as test areas now. Verizon and Sprint have announced "test cities" for 5G which include Sacramento, Washington DC, Atlanta, Dallas, Miami and New York.

A first glance at US government websites such as the CDC and EPA could lead you to believe that this radiation is safe. Yet over 240 scientists and doctors from 41 nations who have published research in the field have appealed to the United Nations calling for urgent action to reduce these ever growing wireless exposures and they wrote the FCC for a moratorium on the roll-out of 5G citing the serious risks that to human health and the environment.

Published peer reviewed science already indicates that the current wireless technologies of 2G, 3G and 4G - in use today with our cell phones, computers and wearable tech - creates radiofrequency exposures which poses a serious health risk to humans, animals and the environment. Scientists are cautioning that before rolling out 5G, research on human health effects urgently needs to be done first to ensure the public and environment are protected.

The Constitution Is Clear: Please find the follow-up to my communication on the transmission of illegal radio frequency signals from the cellular and micro towers in Tampa/St Petersburg, and its surrounding areas. My observations are based on clear scientific and engineering principles and data.

I am a Ph.D. from Princeton University and a former scientist from Los Alamos National Laboratory in New Mexico where I worked within nuclear weapon research teams. I held a Q clearance (top secret equivalent of DoD). I have also worked on DARPA research projects as a senior scientist.

There is a technology transmitting RF signals and communications at the human brain resonant frequency bands, and it is targeting individuals and groups.

These transmissions will cause harmful health affects in the form of enhanced microwave radiation illness. It is imperative that these frequency bands be measured and verified by an official source. These frequency bands do not exist naturally, and there is a technology targeting individuals.

Cellular transmission's broadcast at 853 MHz, human brain resonance is centered around 450Mhz, and Ham radio operators are not allowed to broadcast at the 400Mhz to 700Mhz band. I would suggest a filtering at the 400Mhz to 700Mhz band on all microwave and cellular transmissions, digital filters should suffice in the near term. Civilians are being harmed by the deliberate transmissions of an established technology.

The verified measurement and existence of these RF band transmissions constitutes a terrorist act. Please advise the appropriate security office on Homeland security. This is a serious matter that needs immediate attention and it must be addressed. Please feel free to contact me.

I would be happy the discuss it. Thank you

Dears Sirs

I would like to bring to your attention that a technology derived from the patents listed below is being used in an illegal manner over the cellular and microwave towers in St Petersburg/Tampa/Orlando FL.

Please bring this matter to the attention of the security office and appropriate contract monitor for the technology mention within. The technology is clearly being used by a non US government group with lethal intentions on civilians.

I forwarded previous emails on my understanding of the technology. I believe this matter needs serious and immediate attention.

Sincerely,

We all know the story of Edward Snowden. He was an employee of the CIA and also a computer scientist with NSA who had to flee abroad after denouncing the illegal practices within the intelligence services. But he is not the only one who denounces irregularities in intelligence services.

William Binney, former technical director of the NSA (National Security Agency) also talks about mind control techniques and a totalitarian regime that seeks to manipulate the minds of the world's population to make the most of it and with the agreement of Presidents Bush and Obama (see videos below). At a conference in November 2014, I had the pleasure of speaking personally with Mr. William Binney and it made me understand a lot.

At the same conference, I was able to speak also with Finnish-born Dr. Rauni Kilde, a doctor in three disciplines and a former chief medical officer for Finland. For years she gave readings on parapsychology. In this field, she came into contact with people from intelligence services around the world who explained the technological developments in the various military fields.

She also explains the practices currently performed by different intelligence services in order to control the mind of the population. Beside this mental control, they also experiment with citizens who serve as guinea pigs to see how they will react. In the following video, we see Dr. Rauni Kilde at the conference, where half of the audience was victims of electronic harassment. It explains the functioning of our body and our mind.

Dr. Rauni-Leena Luukanen Kilde

June 9, 2011 @florencioviray

covert microchip mind control research
- According to Kilde, the United States and other nations have been involved in covert microchip mind control research. Technological advances have enabled researchers to continuously improve upon the size and quality of the implants, Kilde asserts, stating that the initial implants were one centimeter in size, but later shrank to "the size of a grain of rice and, whereas early implants were made of silicon, later ones were manufactured from gallium arsenide. "Today," Kilde says, the implants "are small enough to be inserted into the neck or back, and also intravenously in different parts of the body during surgical operations, with or without the consent of the subject," and, using low-frequency radio waves and satellites, "it is now almost impossible to detect or remove them" (The Leaves Of Wisdom - Rauni-Leena Luukanen-Kilde).

By wanting to denounce the electronic implant mind control techniques too much, she was considered a very disturbing person and she was attacked with a directed energy weapon 3 weeks after the conference. A directed energy weapon can completely disrupt the functioning of the molecules and Dr. Rauni Kilde had an instant cancer that killed her afterwards. She tells a friend by e-mail what happened to her:

Below is a video directed by RT (Russian Television) where the journalist Daniel Estulin explains the problem of electronic harassment. Daniel Estulin is also known as a writer and who presented his book "Bilderberg" at the press conference in the European Parliament on June 2, 2010 where he was the guest of Nigel Farage and Mario Borghezio, both members of the European Parliament . You will see in the video Mr. Magnus Olsson, a victim of electronic harassment

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o9bd-B2dqCM>

Magnus Olsson, a Swedish graduate at Harvard, had his own company and was quiet for life with the income he had. But today he's ruined, financially and physically because of electronic harassment. He is only a shadow of himself :

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fhCTNImVvkl>

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pK_xfamSSzg

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JxbAoaCBeQE>

Another victim of electronic harassment is Dr. Katherine Horton. She has a Ph.D. from Oxford University (Particle Physics) and worked in the laboratory of CERN, the world-renowned European organization for nuclear research.

Just like Magnus Olsson, today her life has become hell due of the electronic harassment she undergoes: she lost her job and her husband left her because she is constantly being tortured electronically.

<https://stop007.org/home/about/>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YhgFzTM-x9U>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NLifs7lioil>

But it's not just these two people. Thousands of innocent citizens are being harassed electronically. They serve as guinea pigs for the development of this brain control technology.

All victims face the same problems:

1. they are permanently electronically persecuted,
2. people do not believe what they suffer and they consider them crazy
3. their friends, as well as their loved ones leave them because their life has become unbearable
4. as a parent, the victims also lose custody of their children and are thus separated from their children with the so-called excuse that they are a threat to their children

Another victim is Mélanie Vritschan who experiences the same problems as mentioned above. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=u68jGvZXajQ>

Below one can find some examples of organizations representing victims and trying to be heard by the judiciary, politicians, etc., but today without result by lack of finances.

ICAACT : <http://www.icaact.org/>

EUCACH : <https://eucach.wordpress.com/>

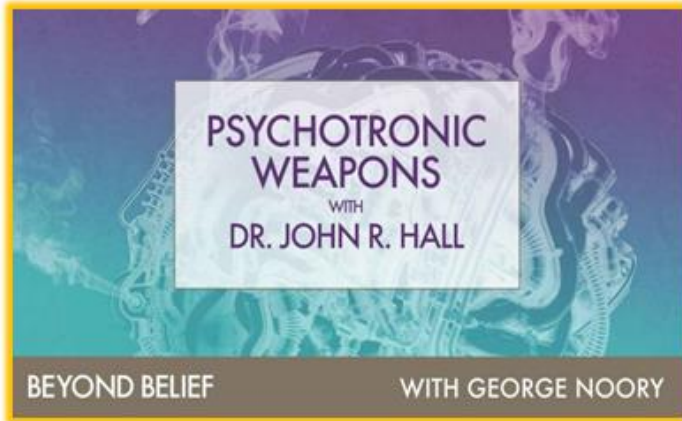

ICATOR : <http://icator.be/>

I also met Elke Malone, who succumbed to electronic torture a few weeks ago. I personally know dozens of victims, some of whom live in Belgium, France, the Netherlands, Germany, Austria, Sweden, etc.

These people all live in despair because so far they are not given any listening and justice refers to doctors who describe all the symptoms as imaginary. Some doctors are complicit in these practices, most of them are in total ignorance and those who are confronted with the facts are silent so as not to fall into disrepute with the order of doctors.

<https://www.biggerthansnowden.com/>

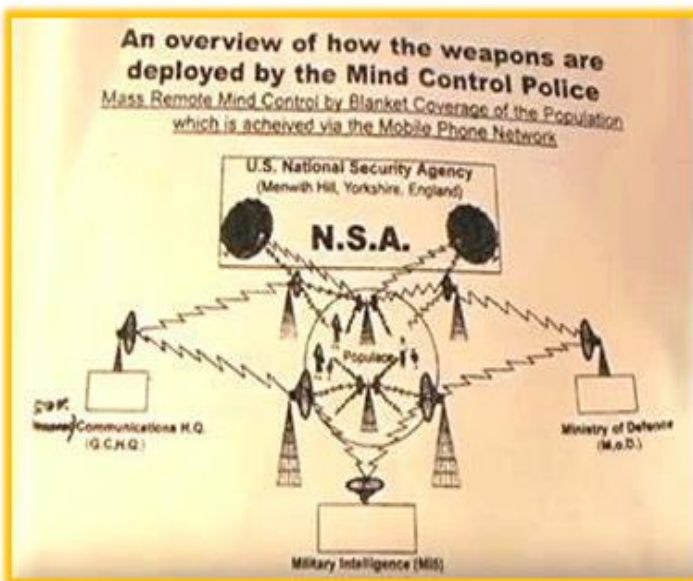

As described in this announcement "Beyond Belief". Impossible to believe that this is possible.

The problem is that too many people still live in naivety and are convinced that such practices cannot exist because it is all part of the imagination of conspiracy theorists. But unfortunately, it is a reality.

<https://www.mynewsletterbuilder.com/email/newsletter/1413368288>

I have implants shown in an MRI and around the implants are grey areas lighter than the rest of the brain where it looks like the brain tissue has already been changed, heated. The large white blob is one of two at the back of my brain (about 1.5 inches long). Research shows that there has never been any long term implants that don't effect the tissue around them. So these "for life" implants are damaging my brain and surely will shorten my life and my mental abilities. I am a research project. Doesn't that deserve some attention by people who care about other people? We TI's are the research subjects of the world, disposable, bugs on the sidewalk where the world governments work their evil. AND, I am continuing to be implanted and injected in my sleep.

It's important to understand that technology is evolving and that there is always a positive side and a negative side. It must be realized that chemical, biological and nuclear weapons also exist and that they are also used against citizens. Microwave weapons do not leave visible traces. You are cooked from the inside, resulting in fast and super fast cancers. One can also come into direct contact with the person's brain to force him to do things against his will: the citizen himself becomes a lethal weapon. School killings are examples !

Some examples of brain manipulation programs:

Delta programming (CIA 1960). Subliminal electromagnetic programming through television and radio antennas, through high voltage distribution cables, through the metal mattress springs. During their sleep many people are programmed without being aware of it.

RF Media program (CIA, 1990). Programming and unleashing behavior, reversing or undermining psychological abilities in preparation for mass electromagnetic control.

Tower Program (CIA, 1990). Program people by neuronal resonance to induce neuronal degeneration for the purpose of psychological oppression. Neuronal degeneration results in Alzheimer's disease. The pseudonym of this program is called "Wedding Bells". The 3G system was designed as a military communication system to control the mind. 5G is much better at handling people's minds and it will soon be implemented.

Predent Program (CIA 1989). Massive control of the population, behavioral control and riot control. The program is not intended to maintain tranquility during demonstrations, but to encourage the masses to hate and aggression by electromagnetic waves.

Phoenix 2 program de USAir force (1983). Using multi-directional electronic programming focusing population groups with the aim of creating planetary sleepwalking, creating earthquakes at specific locations and programming excitable individuals. The pseudonym for this program is Program Rainbow.

Le projet MK-Ultra (ou MKUltra) is the code name of an illegal CIA secret project from the 1950s to the 1970s aimed at manipulating people's brains. MK-ULTRA is managed by the Department of Science & Technology and was unveiled several times during the 1950s and 1960s. There is evidence of the use of various types of chemicals (medication and drugs) and several methods to manipulate brain functions and mood states. In the following video you will see people immobilized as if they were a robot and others who no longer have control over themselves :

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ID2e80vLjAI>

Hollywood has made several movies on this subject like « The Manchurian Candidate »

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pFtiaquxmdA>

Here's a testimony of the well-known actor Denzel Washington who played in the movie The Manchurian Candidate : <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nKd2QVrQVIM>

The following video is one of the reports that was made about the experiences of the CIA (and other intelligence agencies) during the years 1950 to 1980 with drugs:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NUW-frxo2X4>

and the following video offers insight into what's happening in the intelligence circles:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=k5hVdbwx8Wk>

But the technology has evolved and the following video gives you an overview. School killings may well be the result of brain manipulation across smartphones.

The Black Project : <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uyTT33lcj48&feature=youtu.be>

But this does not end here. There is even more.

During the 1970s, the Russians had developed a radar that was supposed to defend the country against missile attacks from the United States. Their radar could spy on the entire US region and verify that no missiles were coming from their direction. This is the DUGA 3, a radar more than one km wide and 160m high.

It turns out that this radar has strongly influenced the climate on the American continent. An unprecedented drought for years. The Russians apparently did not expect their radar to have any effect on the climate of the American continent, but a new military weapon was 'discovered' and today more than 20 TTA's (Tesla Technology Array) are distributed around the world.

In 1993 the project HAARP (High Frequency Active Auroral Research Program) was launched and is managed by DARPA (Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency)

The creation of the Advanced Research Projects Agency (ARPA) was authorized by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1958 for the purpose of forming and executing research and development projects to expand the frontiers of technology and science, and able to reach far beyond immediate military requirements

But also in Europe, Europe is part of NATO, such a system exists and is located at Tromsø, in Norway and is called EISCAT.

Here is a video explaining how HAARP works presented by Dr Agnew Brooks

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lqDg70RLn0c&feature=youtu.be>

A 1959 Walt Disney documentary deserves your attention because it explains how we can change the weather. It is therefore clear that this is not a newly discovered technique, but a long-time desire and of course that this intervention is presented as beneficial ... "Eyes in Outer Space", a science-factual presentation that dates from 1959 where we see a plane spray chemtrails ! The subject will be discussed later in this document.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n46Uhnkr1Lk>

So there exist HAARP systems in the United States, of course, in Gekona Hipas in Alaska, in Long Island in Area 51 and in Arecibo in Puerto Rico (which can be seen in the James Bond movie 'Golden Eye').

There are also Haarp systems in Sura 100 km from Novgorod in Russia, in Japan, the Mu radar and then also in Peru, Brazil, China, India, Australia and also on some tiny islands such as the Ascension island, located in the Atlantic, obviously military domains (RAF and NASA).

Examples where a directed energy weapon could have been used.

1. The attack of 11 september 2001 : In the presentation of Judy Wood, Ph.D. in Materials Science, we can clearly see that steel piers evaporate in seconds in the open air. The boiling point of steel is above 3000°C, but temperatures much higher than 3000°C are required to evaporate steel at such a speed. This means something else is going on and it is likely that another technology has been used. It is the same for the cars stricken on the spot. Vehicle steel is twisted by 'heat', but plastic and paper remain intact.

Compare the condition of the buildings of September 11, 2001 with what you have just seen and also remember the message of Dr. Paul Batcho of Darpa above.

In the next part, you will better understand the reasons for chemtrails and that it is very related to the subject you just read.

Through the United Nations the whole world is pushed to a program of radical change to avoid a climate drama .

Let's analyze the United Nations policy more closely to better understand what is really going on, because we are talking about many things but never in detail.

The following video already gives you a first glimpse (French) : To an artificial climate

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z46ceSaWlpo>

Let's first decipher the terms CONTRAILS and CHEMTRAILS

Contrail means condense trail, a trace of condensation..

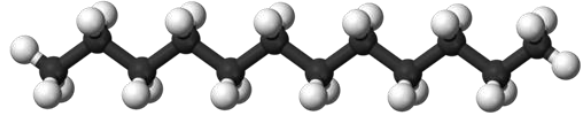

Where does this condensation come from ?

From the burning of kerosene, the fuel for planes.

Kerosene is a hydrocarbon, a derivative of oil.

As its name suggests, the hydrocarbon is a chain of carbon atoms and hydrogen atoms.

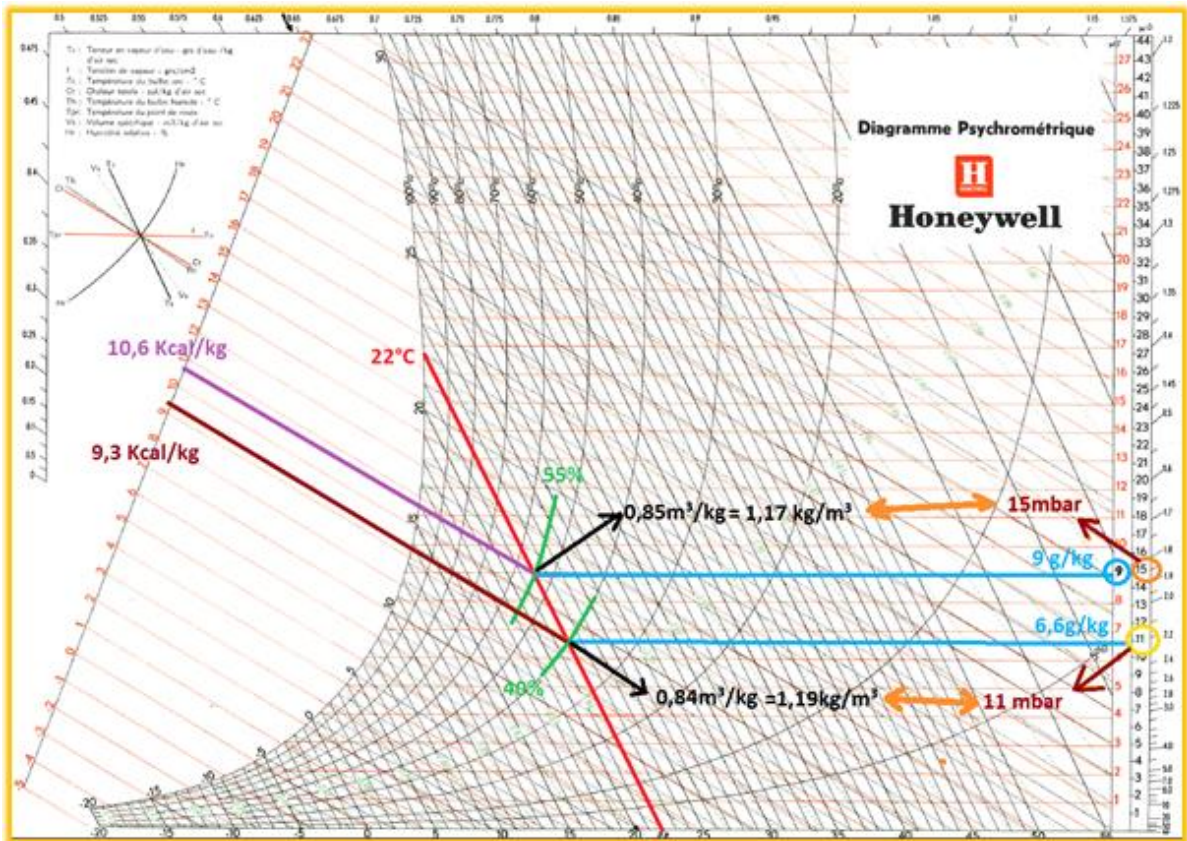

Kerosene has 10 to 16 carbon atoms and 22 to 34 hydrogen atoms that burn to generate heat and energy to move airplanes.

Typical to the combustion of hydrocarbons is the production of CO2 and H2O.

Combustion or explosion is a rapid oxidation process. With its more powerful attraction force, oxygen manages to separate hydrogen from carbon and to separate the carbon atoms between them, to form on the one hand CO2 molecules whose number of molecules is equal to the number of carbon atoms present in the hydrocarbon molecule and on the other hand in H2O in the form of water vapor.

CO2 is a greenhouse gas. The same is true for water vapor, which is not known to the general public. Just like CO2, moisture in the air keeps the air warmer, but with the only difference that water vapor is almost 20 times more present in the air than CO2. As a result, CO2 is not mentioned in the air psychrometric chart because CO2 has very little influence compared to water vapor in terms of caloric content. The diagram below shows that for the same temperature of 22°C, the air includes more heat at 55% relative humidity than 40% relative humidity.

For the same temperature (here 22°C) a wetter air contains more water vapor when the relative humidity rises. On the diagram we see 9g/kg dry air for 22°C, 55% RH against 6.6g/kg dry air for 22°C, 40% RH (RH = relative humidity). The expression in g/kg dry air represents the absolute humidity contained in the air.

It is known that warmer air is lighter than colder air with the same absolute vapor content. What is less known is that for the same temperature the wetter air is lighter than the dry air, which is why tons of water can fly over us in the form of clouds.

But how is it that air that contains more water vapor can weigh less than dry air ?

To the right of the 9 g/kg indicated on the diagram, it is also indicated the number 15 which announces the vapor pressure under this condition. The same is true for the 6.6 g/kg where we can read 11. This means that the water vapor creates a tension (a pressure) which is expressed in mbar (millibar) or hPa (hecto Pascal) as on the barometer.

Where does this tension come from? The vapor molecules separate the molecules from the air to settle there and given the vapor (H₂O) weighs much less than the air, this volume therefore weighs less than the dry air.

So it's not just the air temperature that plays a role in the weight of the air.

By the pressure difference, the air start to move to find a balance.

When one carefully observes the edges of the clouds for several minutes which circulate in a sky not too cloudy, one can note that the edges of clouds disappear from sight progressively. This means that the contour of the clouds which is in contact with the surrounding air dissolves very slowly by the fact that a balance is put in place between the air almost saturated with water vapor and the unsaturated air.

Due to the pressure difference between moist air (cloud) and dry air, water vapor moves to drier air. It can be seen that a slight cloud disappears from view after a few minutes.

It is the same with the traces of condensation of the planes. An airplane with jet engines traveling in the air at a speed of nearly 800 km/h cannot leave behind a dense cloud that lags for hours, but rather a condensation that scatters quickly and then disappears from the view.

Depending on the atmospheric conditions, the condensation trace of an airplane does not last more than 7 to 30 seconds and then the trace of condensation disappeared because of the difference in pressure which circulates the water vapor in volumes of drier air.

By verifying the vicinity of the cooling towers of power plants that discharge significantly more water vapor than an aircraft reactor, it never happens that a permanent fog settles, even in very rainy atmospheric conditions.

Although the towers produce more water vapor and are immobile, the water vapor released into the air disappears after a certain time and this according to the same physical law: pressure difference = movement of the air ... and the water vapor is absorbed in the surrounding air volumes, even at very cold temperatures or in very cloudy weather.

Below, on the two photos at the top left, made in winter, we can barely see the aircraft drag. They were contrails and it was -8 °C. The other photos were made in summer.

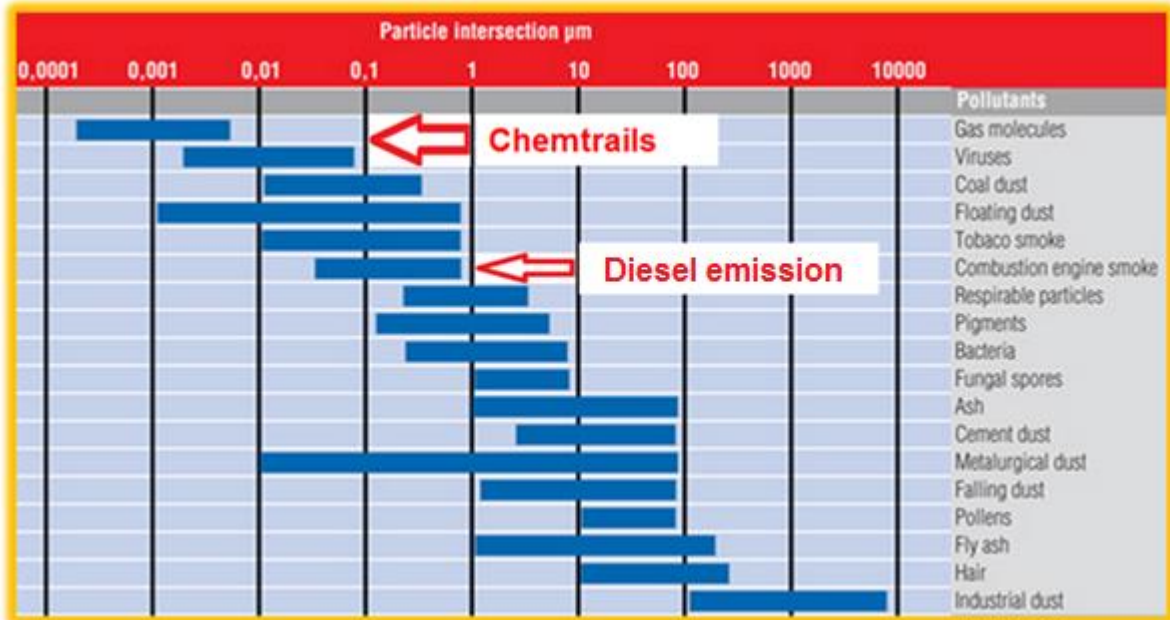

Then the following question arises:

“ How is it that the trails are now present for hours and are spreading ? ” We are talking about another phenomenon.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CSPfMPAhibiA&feature=youtu.be>

Below is a table showing that the particles of a chemtrail are smaller and therefore more dangerous than those of the exhaust gases

What is this process that creates these long white lines that scatter behind the airplanes and float in the sky for hours and descend slowly ?

Air analyzes, but mostly rainwater and soil surface analyzes, demonstrate that a particular process is taking place. There are strange high concentrations of Aluminum, Barium, Strontium, Cadmium and other substances.

Rosalind Peterson, president of the Agriculture Defense Coalition, explains the problem at the United Nations in 2007.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yIYdT-iP9os>

In the following video Rosalind Peterson explains more about geoengineering, the toxic products used and the reduction of vitamin D due to a lack of light that causes many health problems.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7Yg8FBnGXlk&feature=youtu.be>

<http://www.agriculturedefensecoalition.org/content/geoengineering-current-actions>

Then we have the testimony of Dr. William (Bill) Deagle.

For your information, Dr. William Deagle has a background in marine bacteriology, biochemistry and medicine. He is a physician for the secret services of the SDI (Star Wars), Echelon and World ID project, Shriver AFB, NORAD, US Space Command, Top Classified Quantum Computing CRAY Five Gallium Arsenide and manufacturers of wide-array microchips, ATMEL Corp Ferromagnetic EMP proof chip and weapons energy directed on DNA), Project Iridium Satellite

As a prominent professor, Dr. Deagle taught on the instructions of AAEM, the American Academy of Environmental Medicine Seminar for North America, Europe, to doctors and US teams operating in special biological weapons..

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=N6z46ekOCqo>

For those interested, they can see his full speech on the following video (over 4 hours) where he exposes the different practices of the elite based on what he has found in military institutions and intelligence services:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=R8RX61WA8Ow>

In short, Dr. William Deagle explains that chemtrails contain different metals such as aluminum, barium and cadmium and other synthetic, biological and genetically modified compounds. It only confirms the story of Mrs. Rosalind Peterson in her presentation to the United Nations.

Aluminum : (French report)

We know since the 1970s that aluminum is toxic for nerve cells and researchers are trying to find out if aluminum can promote the development of several pathologies, such as multiple sclerosis (1a) and especially Alzheimer's disease, which would affect more than 400,000 people in France, with around 100,000 new cases each year. If nothing is yet proven, several studies conclude that the risk of developing the disease increases when the concentration exceeds 0.1 mg per liter of water. (1)(2)

The French PAQUID study followed for over eight years more than 3,700 volunteers. The authors conclude that people whose drinking water contains more than 0.1mg of aluminum per liter are twice as likely to develop Alzheimer's disease. This study also shows that when the silica concentration is higher than 11.25mg/l the risk is lower than when the water is low in silica, since in this case the risk of Alzheimer's is reduced by 27%. Cadmium :

Wikipédia : https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cadmium_poisoning

Cadmium poisoning can be acute or chronic, with mainly pulmonary, bony and renal lesions. The average cadmium content ("Cd" notation) of equine offal (horse, donkey, mullet, donkey) is approximately 10 µg / g of cadmium. The temporary tolerable daily intake ("TDIT") of cadmium having been statutorily limited to a maximum of 1 µg • kg-1 • d-1, any marketing of offal of "late slaughtered" equidae is prohibited. Indeed, even if these offals were the only dietary source of cadmium for humans, this ban would be justified because an average weekly consumption of only 100g of offal would lead to exposing the consumer to 1.000µg / week, ie for someone from 60kg, more than double the TDDT, which limits it to a Cd intake of less than 60µg per day, ie 420µg / week

EFSA has set a tolerable weekly intake (DHT) of 2.5µg/kg body weight for cadmium (150µg/week), which is 3 times lower than announced in Wikipedia !!

<https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/FR/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32014R0488&from=NL>

Cadmium seems above all to be harmful to the kidneys. The effects are manifested with age. The International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) has classified cadmium as a carcinogen.

Cadmium has no physiological role in the human body. The metal itself and its compounds are extremely toxic, even at low concentrations, and tend to accumulate in living organisms and ecosystems.

Barium :

Barium reacts violently with water by giving barium hydroxide Ba (OH) 2, or hydrated baryta, which is very toxic.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Barium>

Small amounts of these compounds may cause breathing difficulties, increased blood pressure, changes in heart rate, stomach irritation, muscle weakness, changes in nerve reflexes, inflammation of the brain and liver, kidney and heart damage. Absorption of a significant amount of these compounds may cause paralysis and, in some cases, death.

<https://www.lenntech.fr/periodique/elements/ba.htm>

Strontium

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Strontium>

<https://www.lenntech.fr/periodique/elements/sr.htm>

It must be understood that what is suspended in the air, collects in the rainwater and spreads in rivers and other streams and also seeps into the ground. If the aforementioned elements are harmful to the human body, so are the fauna and flora.

Across Europe and therefore also in Belgium rainwater analyzes have been done by independent laboratories at the request of valiant citizens with similar results: an abnormally high presence in Aluminum, Barium, Cadmium, etc

In principle rainwater should not contain substances because it is an evaporation of water that condenses afterwards. The substances found in the rain are pollutants that are in the air.

Portugal, Mafra, Ericeira, Rainwater Test, 3/14/2013

This is a rainwater analysis that was collected on 2013-03-14 at Ericeira, Mafra, Portugal, that showed a presence of:

Total Aluminum: 0,33 mg/L \Rightarrow 0,33 mg/l = 330 μ g/l
 Total Zinc: 0,10 mg/L

In Switzerland, someone has done an analysis of the rainwater collected in the jacuzzi on his terrace and the results are very surprising. Normally we would expect the mountain air in Switzerland to be healthy, but because of chemtrails the opposite is true :

Aluminium : 38 mg/l , soit 38.000 µg/l ; Baryum : 0,44mg/ , soit 440µg/l and Strontium : 0260mg/l , soit 260µg/l.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of these concentrations.

There are still other analyzes, but we can no longer deny the presence of substances in rainwater. It must be understood that these substances accumulate in the soil and can thus over time pollute the water of the rivers and the water table ... and the water we drink. And it's the same thing that Rosalind Peterson explained to the United Nations: we're seeing an increase of these concentrations everywhere and at the same time.

An oligoscan measures the presence and amount of trace elements, vitamins and metals in the body. A body needs several trace elements, metals, as well as needed vitamins. Quantities must be between a minimum and a maximum to ensure proper functioning of the body. It is striking to note which metals are continually indicated as too high: aluminum, barium, cadmium.

Getting a blood test is another way to check out.

Someone in Spain has done it and it turns out that the amount of aluminum present in his body is well above the maximum limit. It must be understood that the body cannot easily get rid of heavy metals and too high concentration leads to serious health problems.

Blood tests were also done in the United States and which raised concerns among the population.

Blood test concerns arise in 'chemtrails' meeting State Sen. Kelli Ward, left, and Administrative Counsel Sherri Zendri of the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality addressed health and environmental concerns of Mohave County residents Wednesday night.

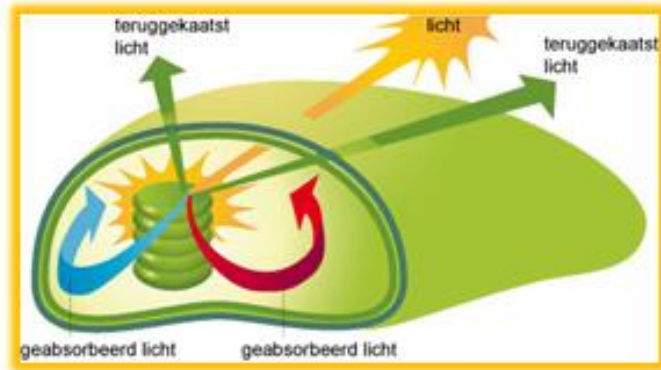

High metal concentrations in the body cause the weakening of the immune system and high concentrations of aluminum acidify the soil. Once assimilated in the roots, the roots are more difficult to pass nutrients and water necessary for the growth of the tree (phenomenon of the diseased forests: many desiccated branches and leaves with deformed aspect and half dried. The phenomenon spreads almost everywhere in a uniform way.

Because chemtrails spread slowly over large areas, they block a lot of sunlight. In the weather news they always talk about a cloudy sky or a veiled sun. Less sunlight results in a decrease in photosynthesis. Photosynthesis is the natural source of energy for all vegetation (Chlorophyll).

It's the same for humans who need solar energy to produce vitamin D. A shortage of vitamin D causes fatigue and depression.

The fact that the substances propagated in the chemtrails are of the nanometric order, they can easily pass the blood-brain barrier. Increased concentration of metals in our brain carries a risk of diseases such as Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, autism ... something that can be clearly identified in our contemporary civilization.

These nanoparticles can agglutinate with each other and sometimes it forms webs looking like spider webs or it forms viscous puddles that drag for a few days eg. on a blue stone after a rain when the rainwater had already evaporated for a long time (see photo I took from my terrace in Brussels in 2014).

Various testimonies confirm these findings, as for example in Scotland :

and in the United States :

Crystalline Blobs from Space

In 1997 the chem-trails began raining down mysterious blobs of a gelatinous substance that look much like ice but was not cold. Some fell on my small farm. I donned rubber gloves, double-bagged the substance, and tried to find an independent laboratory to test the substance was unable to find one even though I contacted the few experts in the field at the time. On December 9, 2007 about 2 feet of this gelatinous substance fell in Everett, WA on a low-income apartment complex on Casino Road. The news media picked up the event and one of the major TV stations did a story saying that the substance was being sent to a lab for testing but nobody ever heard later what the result of the testing was. Evening Magazine a weekly expanded news program for Seattle did a story on the Everett and Oak Harbor mysterious blobs that fall from the sky. It was at this time that Will Thomas was interviewed by Art Bell on Coast to Coast about these chem-trails and the mysterious blobs. The news broadcast and Evening Magazine coverage has been scrubbed from the internet. You can only find vague references to the Art Bell interview.

Crystalline Blobs from Space

Not long after the gelatin blobs, especially in May, spider-web material began falling from the sky during chem-trailing. At that time chem-trails were persistent "cloud" trails that were left after a jet passed overhead. Chem-trails were in their infancy and when looking up you would see one plane, two trails. The unusual patterns: checkerboard, crosses, X's, V's, and persistent gray haze did not begin until after the turn of the century.

Official authorities and the media always tend to deny or ridicule the testimonies of citizens. So what do we have to think about the testimony of Kristen Meghan, a former military responsible for hygiene and public health? She controlled the material request cards and the risks and consequences for military personnel and the public. Sheets with the orders of tons and tons of aluminum oxide and sulphite she received were very vague and did not meet the standards imposed. By the time she started refusing these weird orders, she was threatened with internment and told that her child would be placed under guardianship. As soon as her mission to the army ended, Kristen Meghan began to denounce what is happening.

But apart from chemtrails, there are also chembombs where a concentration of substances is released to create a concentrate of clouds, which can cause a storm almost instantaneous :

In the summer of 2014, during the Californian Mount Shasta Council many testimonials about chemtrails were heard. Airplane pilots, doctors and scientists have unveiled many things and have clearly confirmed that chemtrails really exist, that they are unhealthy and that we should stop this as soon as possible. Mount Shasta is the only place where chemtrails have been banned since then.

David Keith, Ph.D. in "experimental physics" and professor of "public policy" explains the geo-engineering (Managing Earth's climate system) at the conference on the progress of science held in San Diego, California in June 2011.

David Keith clearly explains that aluminum is the ideal element to reflect the sun's rays. However, concerning the risks of spreading aluminum through chemtrails, he admits that they have not checked anything yet and that they may come across something terrifying that they have not yet taken in account and that it is not a moral hazard but rather to profit in a clandestine way to the detriment of our grandchildren !!! In the video above you also noted that Monsanto has created a cartel with Sinochem and Royal DSM to be able to compete in the commercial aviation world to achieve its goals, ie. by toxic spraying kill all biological vegetation and claim patents for genetically manipulated vegetation and both disintegrate the immune system of the population for the benefit of the pharmaceutical industry. You understand, there are huge financial gains at stake despite the well-being of the population.

But chemtrails are much more than that. We also talk about 'Smart Dust', intelligent dust. Through this dust, HAARP, TTAs, satellites and microwave towers can more easily influence people's brains and generate holographic images accompanied by sound.

One works on the brain and at the same time you see images with sound creating a virtual reality, but perceived as true. This is the Blue Beam project.

When people are pushed into a crisis, it may be a financial crisis, but also a famine crisis, a cultural / ethnic / religious crisis, a general health crisis, bad weather, earthquakes, eruptions volcanic or otherwise, or even seeing it all together, the emotional or the moment of survival depending on the personality of the people takes over. Add to that a virtual reality, it can push whole populations to very dangerous actions because they do not control themselves anymore.

It is quite possible with this technology that we create the image of Allah or Christ speaking to you, or that we give you the impression of an invasion of aliens, etc. The sky will become a giant screen. At that moment they take people by the nose to make them do what they want. Know that if you can use this technology as a military weapon, it can also be used to push entire populations to total madness. With the loss of self-control, it is not excluded that genocides are programmed. Pure nonsense, do you say ? May I remind you of the atrocities committed by Bolshevism, the Nazi regime, the Khmer Rouge and many other cruelties that are so easily forgotten in history classes.

Here are some interesting references to give you an overview of the available technology and the possibilities it offers and its implementation (satellites with holographic technology) :

Clouds keep the heat on the ground. In winter, the nights are less colder with cloudy skies. So if we want to refresh the planet, why create artificial clouds ?

We can also ask ourselves why there is no one who denounces this diabolical program or why the subject is not open to discussion? A former CIA agent explains it to you (Please note that it is not only Edward Snowden who left the CIA to denounce what is really happening behind the scenes)

On October 2, 2001, congressman Dennis Kucinich launched the application HR2977 to ban all exotic weapons.

This was approved in 2002 after the withdrawal of almost all exotic weapons. Any weapon that destroys nature and ecology is illegal.

Bill Text
107th Congress (2001-2002)
H.R. 2977.IH

H.R. 2977 -- Space Preservation Act of 2001 (Introduced in House - IH)

107th CONGRESS
1st Session
H. R. 2977

To preserve the cooperative, peaceful uses of space for the benefit of all humankind by permanently prohibiting the basing of weapons in space by the United States, and to require the President to take action to adopt and implement a world treaty banning space-based weapons.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

October 2, 2001

Mr. KUCINICH introduced the following bill, which was referred to the Committee on Science, and in addition to the Committees on Armed Services, and International Relations, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To preserve the cooperative, peaceful uses of space for the benefit of all humankind by permanently prohibiting the basing of weapons in space by the United States, and to require the President to take action to adopt and implement a world treaty banning space-based weapons.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the 'Space Preservation Act of 2001'.

SEC. 2. REAFFIRMATION OF POLICY ON THE PRESERVATION OF PEACE IN SPACE.

Congress reaffirms the policy expressed in section 102(a) of the National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958 (42 U.S.C. 2451(a)), stating that it 'is the policy of the United States that activities in space should be devoted to peaceful purposes for the benefit of all mankind.'

SEC. 3. PERMANENT BAN ON BASING OF WEAPONS IN SPACE.

The President shall--
(1) implement a permanent ban on space-based weapons of the United States and remove from space any existing space-based weapons of the United States; and
(2) immediately order the permanent termination of research and development, testing, manufacturing, production, and deployment of all space-based weapons of the United States and their components.

SEC. 4. WORLD AGREEMENT BANNING SPACE-BASED WEAPONS.

The President shall direct the United States representatives to the United Nations and other international organizations to immediately work toward negotiating, adopting, and implementing a world agreement banning space-based weapons.

SEC. 5. REPORT.

The President shall submit to Congress not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, and every 90 days thereafter, a report on--
(1) the implementation of the permanent ban on space-based weapons required by section 3; and
(2) progress toward negotiating, adopting, and implementing the agreement described in section 4.

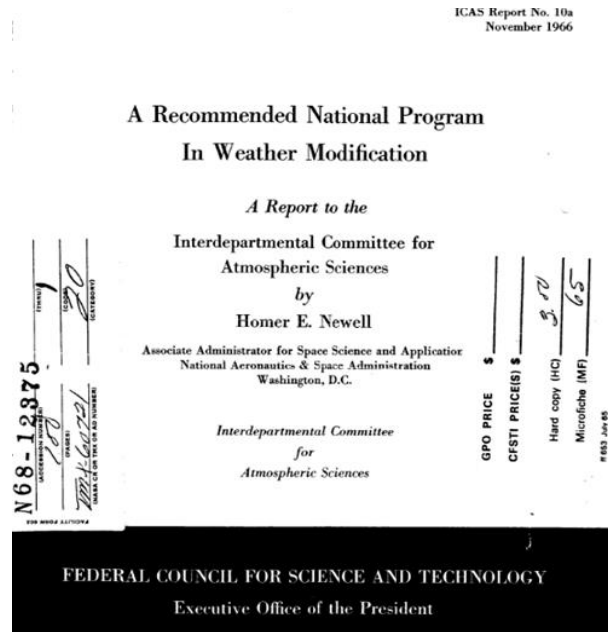

SEC. 6. NON SPACE-BASED WEAPONS ACTIVITIES.

Nothing in this Act may be construed as prohibiting the use of funds for--
(1) space exploration;
(2) space research and development;
(3) testing, manufacturing, or production that is not related to space-based weapons or systems; or
(4) civil, commercial, or defense activities (including communications, navigation, surveillance, reconnaissance, early warning, or remote sensing) that are not related to space-based weapons or systems.

SEC. 7. DEFINITIONS.

In this Act:
(1) The term 'space' means all space extending upward from an altitude greater than 60 kilometers above the surface of the earth and any celestial body in such space.
(2)(A) The terms 'weapon' and 'weapons system' mean a device capable of any of the following:
(i) Damaging or destroying an object (whether in outer space, in the atmosphere, or on earth) by--
(I) firing one or more projectiles to collide with that object;
(II) detonating one or more explosive devices in close proximity to that object;
(III) directing a source of energy (including molecular or atomic energy, subatomic particle beams, electromagnetic radiation, plasma, or extremely low frequency (ELF) or ultra-low frequency (ULF) energy radiation) against that object; or
(IV) any other unacknowledged or as yet undeveloped means.
(ii) Inflicting death or injury on, or damaging or destroying, a person (or the biological life, bodily health, mental health, or physical and economic well-being of a person)--
(I) through the use of any of the means described in clause (i) or subparagraph (B);
(II) through the use of land-based, sea-based, or space-based systems using radiation, electromagnetic, psychotronic, sonic, laser, or other energies directed at individual persons or targeted populations for the purpose of information war, mood management, or mind control of such persons or populations; or
(III) by expelling chemical or biological agents in the vicinity of a person.
(B) Such terms include exotic weapons systems such as--
(i) electronic, psychotronic, or information weapons;
(ii) chemtrails;
(iii) high altitude ultra-low frequency weapons systems;
(iv) plasma, electromagnetic, sonic, or ultrasonic weapons;
(v) laser weapons systems;
(vi) strategic, theater, tactical, or extraterrestrial weapons; and
(vii) chemical, biological, environmental, climate, or tectonic weapons.
(C) The term 'exotic weapons systems' includes weapons designed to damage space or natural ecosystems (such as the ionosphere and upper atmosphere) or climate, weather, and tectonic systems with the purpose of inducing damage or destruction upon a target population or region on earth or in space.

Hereafter you will find the official presidential document dating back to 1966 in which there is talk of a weather modification program (during the era of US President Lyndon B. Johnson)

We can no longer deny that there is an intention to change the weather around the world and to use it as a military weapon. Besides below you can discover an official document of 1996 titled "Time as Force Multiplier - Owning Time in 2025"

2025 is a study designed to comply with a directive from the chief of staff of the Air Force to examine the concepts, capabilities, and technologies the United States will require to remain the dominant air and space force in the future. Presented on 17 June 1996, this report was produced in the Department of Defense school environment of academic freedom and in the interest of advancing concepts related to national defense. The views expressed in this report are those of the authors and do not reflect the official policy or position of the United States Air Force, Department of Defense, or the United States government.

It is striking that we find in Senate Report No. 109-202 of December 8, 2005, the names of people who give the go-ahead to continue the research to change the weather: John McCain, John D. Rockefeller IV (member of the infamous Rockefeller family) and also John F. Kerry, the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs who stands together with former President Barack Obama as a fervent fighter for measures against global warming.

Can we not ask ourselves questions about the dubious role played by the Western media and politicians and what to think of the following video where the official media treat the ex-Iranian president Mahmoud Ahmadinejad as fanciful when he announces that Europe steals rain from the Middle East, especially Iran? Do you really think that former President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad is literally losing his mind by announcing this, or is there something else at stake? And what to think of Mr. Laurent Fabius, socialist politician and Minister of Europe and Foreign Affairs for France and who chaired the Conference on Climate Change for the United Nations ?

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KaaKNo_B1mo&feature=youtu.be

And an Iranian general declares that Israel steals clouds from Iran ...

And watch the following video in which Israeli President Netanyahu offers his services to the Iranian people to get water. According to you, what should we understand?

Supported by the United Nations, world leaders announce that the climate situation is catastrophic based on a so-called long list of scientists who reportedly declare a total climatic debacle due to CO2 and that drastic measures must be taken and heavy taxes and fines imposed to achieve this. With the help of the media, which they totally govern, the population is conditioned to accept a radical change and move towards completely absurd solutions that I will explain later in this document.

It should be noted that the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, better known by the abbreviation IPCC, does not really represent that officially announced authority, but that this group is guided by an authority who stays in the shadows. Moreover, in the following video we can hear that the list of all the scientists who support this policy is a false list, that many scientists have refused to have their name mentioned and that thousands of e-mails circulate between them mentioning serious doubts about the impact of CO2 on the climate.

Let's analyze the statements of former Vice President Al Gore to better understand the character. In the following video, Mr. Al Gore has to explain himself to the House Energy & Commerce Subcommittee and it turns out that many scientists do not align with his vision.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BpQxluBKmE8&feature=youtu.be>

But there is more. I allowed myself to analyze the character of Senator John Warner who supports Mr. Al Gore and some of Mr. Al Gore's statements, and there are things that need to be clarified. First, the statements of Mr. Al Gore ...

At the Inquiry, Mr. Al Gore announces that he has no connection with Goldman Sachs. According to the information I found on the Internet, Mr. Al Gore joined with David Blood in 2004 to create Generation Investment Management, LLC, to make long-term investments and of which he is the president. David Blood worked at Goldman Sachs for 18 years.

Mr. Albert Gore also states at this inquiry that he has no particular connection to Kenneth Lay of Enron. If Mr. Albert Gore had no particular connection with Kenneth Lay, his partner David Blood, he might have had to read the information below.

Enron: Not Too Big to Fail 337

(Table 14.1). Enron had on-balance sheet debts of $31.2 billion and off-balance sheet debts and contingent liabilities of $27 billion. In April 2002, Enron reported that a material portion of the assets at the time of bankruptcy was overstated by $14 billion due to accounting errors and irregularities.³⁹

THE IMMEDIATE SPILLOVER EFFECTS

The immediate spillover effects of Enron's bankruptcy were relatively small and no major economic catastrophes are associated with it. Enron had over 21,000 employees worldwide. About 11,000 employees had their 401(k) retirement accounts invested in Enron stock that became worthless when it plunged from $90 per share to a few cents per share. Kenneth Lay and other Enron executives also sustained large losses on the stock. However, Lay had benefits that were unavailable to other employees, such as prepaid life insurance premiums on a $12 million life insurance policy.⁴⁰ Similarly, Jeffery Skilling had an $8 million life insurance policy.

About 4,000 out of 7,500 Enron employees in Houston lost their jobs in connection with the bankruptcy. An additional 1,100 employees in London were laid off.

Other stock market investors lost billions of dollars. Stock market analysts from Goldman Sachs, Lehman Brothers, Solomon Smith Barney, and UBS Warburg recommended Enron's stock to investors even after some of its problems became public.⁴¹ Every mutual fund and pension plan that had a passive portfolio mimicking the S&P 500 lost money on Enron. Alliance Capital Management Holding LLP lost $282 million for Florida's state pension fund by investing in Enron stock weeks before the company collapsed.⁴² Investment bank J P Morgan Chase may have lost about $1.1 billion by investing in Enron partnerships. Some of that loss may be covered by insurance.⁴³ CSFB had a loss of about $126 million related to Enron.⁴⁴ Bank of America wrote off $210 million in loans to Enron.⁴⁵ Northern Trust had $43.5 million in unsecured loans to Enron, and $24.5 million in secured loans.⁴⁶ Four of Australia's biggest banks, France's Credit Lyonnais, and Holland's ABN Amro all lost large sums.⁴⁷

For those who doubt that high-level politicians do not have contact with Goldman Sachs, here is an explanatory video, which I subtitled. In this same video, we also expose the way of working of Goldman Sachs. Do they work in the interest of the world's population? Your turn to judge.

Goldman Sachs To Pay Enron $7M Over Securities

By Shannon Henson

Law360, New York (January 8, 2009, 12:00 AM ET) -- Goldman Sachs & Co. has agreed to shell out nearly $7 million to the Enron Creditors Recovery Corp. over commercial paper transactions leading up to the energy company's collapse in 2001. In a motion filed Thursday in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, Enron asked the court to approve the $6.95 million deal with Goldman Sachs.

Enron's motion says that between Oct. 26, 2001, and Nov. 6, 2001, Enron paid more than $1 billion on commercial paper prior to those securities reaching maturity. Enron filed for bankruptcy protection on Dec. 2, 2001.

Commercial paper, which includes promissory notes, is a money-market security considered a cheap alternative to bank loans. It is one of the biggest debt markets in the U.S. but requires no registration with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

In November 2003, Enron launched two adversary suits against about 180 parties over the payments, looking to recover hundreds of millions of dollars. A motion Goldman Sachs had filed seeking summary judgment in the proceedings is currently pending.

The settlement motion said the agreement will clearly benefit Enron, its estate and its creditors because it will result in a payment to the estate. It will also avoid future disputes and litigation regarding the investment bank's alleged involvement with the commercial paper transactions, according to the motion.

The deal is the latest in a string of such settlements. In July 2007, a number of companies — including Lehman Commercial Paper Inc., Aetna Inc., Allstate Life Insurance Co., Merrill Lynch Investment Managers LP, Prudential Life Insurance Co. of America and UBS Global Asset Management (Americas) Inc. — settled similar claims with Enron for more than $149 million.

'Concentration' camps of the Guantanamo type are used by them.

Directors and CEO's of multinational are forced to make benefit at any cost, otherwise they risk losing the trust of administrators and shareholders. On the other hand, senior managers and higher management are selected by head hunters who only target candidates who meet the desired profile and who comes close to the typical characteristics of a psychopath: win at any cost, regardless of the consequences for the outside world.

This is just a mouthful of examples, but there are so many more.

But it is true that in our schools it is not interesting to learn history and that it is better to keep young people in complete ignorance so that they are more 'manageable' by the media and the authorities in place who are just the mouthpieces of the multinationals.

CIA Director William Casey said in 1981 : « We'll know that our disinformation program will be complete when everything the American public believes is false. »

He said "EVERYTHING", so also the messages of whistleblowers that are considered as conspiracy theorists.

When, at the beginning of the 1980s, I heard that boilers, cars, etc. had to be adapted. to limit the harmful products of the emission gases, I was a fervent environmental fighter.

A few years later I heard that refrigerant gases, better known as "CFCs" were the cause of the ozone hole. I asked myself questions, because how is it possible that a gas that weights 2 to 3 times more than air can reach an altitude of 20km, see more and in sufficient quantity to disrupt the ozone layer ?

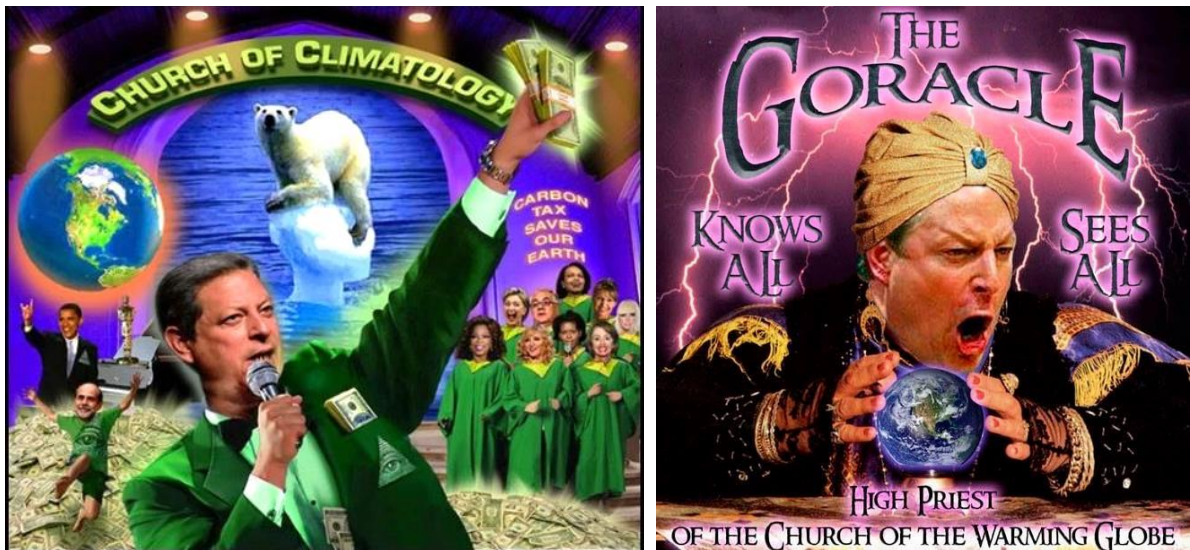

Of course, just like the boilers and other appliances that emitted polluting gases, the entire heat pump and refrigeration equipment park had to be replaced. A beautiful business ... if we start to reflect on the more than 2400 outdoor nuclear explosions that would have had no effect on the environment.

With their story of global warming, they are aiming for much higher ... an unprecedented global extortion.

It should be known that CO2 is beneficial for the Earth, because it is the food of all vegetation on Earth. CO2 is transformed into Oxygen and Carbon by photosynthesis which takes place in the leaves when the sun arises with its light. Carbon is the raw material for plants and trees and the oxygen is released into the air ... What does it do? Tax people on their CO2 production and continue to cut down entire forests? This is what is actually happening.

Besides, the naive 'ecologists' against all knowledge support the politics of the Earth's Warming Religion by massively demonstrating with the message that we must act in the immediate future before it is too late. The machine of deception turns at full speed.

« Beware of the false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inside they are ravening wolves.»

Multinationals and wealthy families, who hide behind them, have no qualms about abusing the naivety of people and they have such power over the people that they start to think they are gods.

It must be understood that these rich people have an army of lawyers, of course, but also an army of psychologists and psychiatrists who shell the psyche of the population in order to abuse it to the MAXIMUM.

The techniques that multinationals use to achieve their targets

1. The lobby

This is the first practice used to achieve its objective and this is quite well known by the general public, but that does not really realize how far it can lead.

The story of the cigarette is known. It took more than 50 years to officially accept that smoking is bad for your health. With the help of the lobby, the multinationals waged a battle of doubt by advancing their so-called experts to thwart the doctors who denounced the evil.

But it is the same for medicine and especially vaccines. How many people have not been fooled by vaccines? Many people are disabled for life and others have died because of one or more vaccines that have been almost imposed and without the pharmaceutical industry being blamed for any responsibility.

2. Astroturf

Astroturf is a very recent practice that consists of hiding a message coming from an organization (multinational, political, advertising, religious, public, etc.). This practice aims to give credibility to the statements of some organizations by concealing information about the source.

The implication underlying the use of the term is that instead of a "real" or "natural" effort at the base of the activity in question, there is an appearance of "fictitious" or "artificial" support and it gives the impression that it comes from local participants and is supported by them.

This practice is used in the media, social networks, Wikipedia, etc. by multinationals and other large corporations, governments, organizations or other authorities, through specialized offices to deliberately deceive the public that the policies of these institutions are voluntarily followed by the public.

The modus operandi is to launch misleading information inviting the public to react. Positive reactions are retained, negative information is immediately discarded. So, readers only see positive reactions. Whistleblowers of these practices, who may be journalists, politicians, citizens, ... are discredited immediately by ridiculing them publicly and someone who has doubts about anything is quickly confronted with information from so-called experts in the matter.

Astroturf is a highly effective lobby technique and is used continuously today. Proof is the recent development of an organized ecological movement in which young students who have been totally brainwashed are given a leading role to push politicians towards more drastic measures that will naturally cost the population a huge amount of money through Eco-taxes and other procedures and that will drive our civilization to a complete chaos.

The term Astroturf is derived from AstroTurf, a synthetic carpet brand designed to look like natural grass, like a word game "information at the source".

Here is a video on this theme by Sharyl Attkisson, a TV journalist/presenter who resigned because she was fed up with these techniques and the lies and indoctrinations that are being broadcast on television..

'Organizations can hire fake advocates who create the illusion of real support for their message. It's a shady practice called astroturfing that can warp the public perception of anything... even astroturfing.'

3. The strategy of DIVERSION

The strategy of diversion is to divert the public's attention from the important problems and mutations decided by the political and economic elites, thanks to a continual flood of distractions and insignificant information.

4. SHOCK and SOLUTION strategy

First, a problem is created, a "situation" that is designed to elicit a certain reaction from the public, so that the public is itself asking for the measures one want them to accept.

Ex : - allow urban violence to flourish so that the public ask for security laws to the detriment of freedom.

- create an economic crisis to make accept as a necessary evil the decline of social rights and the dismantling of public services.

5. The strategy of Degradation

To make accept an unacceptable measure, it is enough to apply it gradually, in gradient over a period of 10 years. This is how the radically new socio-economic conditions (neoliberalism) were imposed during the 1980s and 1990s. Massive unemployment, precariousness, flexibility, relocations, wages no longer ensuring a decent income, as many changes that would have caused a revolution if they had been brutally applied.

6. The strategy of postponing

Another way to get an unpopular decision accepted is to present it as 'painful but necessary', getting the public's agreement in the present for an application in the future. It is always easier to accept a future sacrifice than an immediate sacrifice because the effort is not forthcoming and the public always tends to naively hope that "everything will be better tomorrow".

Finally, it gives the public time to get used to the idea of change and accept it with resignation when the time comes.

7. The strategy of infantilization

Most consumer-oriented commercials use particularly infantilizing speech, arguments, characters and tone, often close to the debilitating, as if the viewer was an infant or mentally disabled person. The more we try to deceive the viewer, the more we adopt a childish tone. Why ?

If one speaks to a person as if she were 12 years old, then, because of the suggestibility, she will, with a certain probability, have an uncritical response or reaction as of a person of 12 years.

8. The strategy of emotion

Appealing to the emotional is a classic technique to bypass the rational analysis, and therefore the critical sense of individuals.

In addition, the use of the emotional register opens the door to access the unconscious to implant ideas, desires, fears, impulses, or behaviors...

9. The strategy of ignorance

To ensure that the public is unable to understand the technologies and methods used for its control and slavery. The quality of education given to the lower classes must be poor, so that the gap of ignorance that isolates the lower classes from the upper classes remains incomprehensible to the lower classes.

Ex. Through animations for children, the children are conditioned that the chemtrails are normal. Thus, these children when they become adults will not ask questions.

10. The strateg of mediocrity

Encourage the public to indulge in mediocrity, by encouraging it to find 'cool' being stupid, vulgar and uneducated by elevating them to idols and role models, the most stupid people possible, through of the most alienating and debilitating entertainment programs.

11. The strategy of guilt

Make the individual believe that he alone is responsible for his misfortune, because of the insufficiency of his intelligence, of his abilities, or of his efforts.

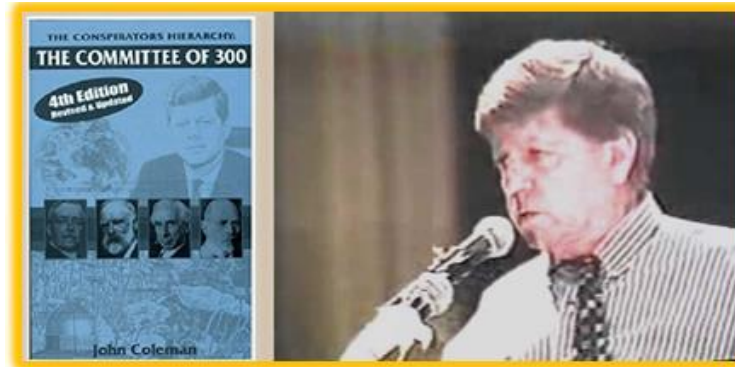

Thus, instead of revolting against the economic system, the individual depreciates himself and feels guilty, which generates a depressive state, one of whose effects is the inhibition of any action. And without action there is no contest.

Is it really the citizen who is causing the problem of global warming? And who pays?

12. The strategy of knowledge

Over the last 50 years, the rapid progress of science has widened the gap between public knowledge and the one held and used by the ruling elites. Thanks to biology, neurobiology and applied psychology, the "system" has come to an advanced knowledge of the human being, both physically and psychologically. The system has succeed to know the average individual better than the individual knows himself. This means that in the majority of cases the system has greater control and power over individuals than the individuals themselves.

The story of 'The Committee of 300', written by Dr. John Coleman, a former 'intelligence agent' of the British MI6, describes here the conspiracy about a secret group that controls and rules everything, but than everything.

In this work the writer investigates on the operation of the 'Tavistock Institute for Human Behaviour', an institute that finds its origin in the theories of Sigmund Freud. The pioneering work of Tavistock was to use the Freudian theories to provide a base to control and dominate the human brain. From the University of Sussex, the network expanded towards the United States to the Stanford Research Institute, the Esalen Institute, the MIT, the Hudson Institute, the Heritage Foundation, the Centre for Strategic and International Studies at Georgetown where some deputies from the U.S. were trained, plus the US Air Force Intelligence and the RAND Corporation en the MITRE Corporation. In his book Dr. Coleman describes that the staff was obliged to undergo indoctrination in one or more Tavistock controlled institutes. Besides the above-described network, there exists an additional network of secret groups as the Mont Pelerin Society, the Trilateral Commission, the American Ditchley Foundation and the Club of Rome that functions as a transit channel for the instructions to the Tavistock network. The Tavistock Institute developed the mass brainwashing techniques which were first tested on American prisoners in Korea. Subsequently, mass control methods were tried on the American public. It was a clandestine but never excessive attack on human freedom; the personal behaviour of individuals was modified by using current psychology techniques. A German 'refugee', Kurt Lewin became director of Tavistock in 1932. He was afterwards transferred as a 'refugee' to the United States where he started the Harvard Psychology Clinic. The first large-scale test consisted of a massive propaganda campaign to put the American public against Germany, which made the public ripe for the involvement of the United States in the Second World War. In 1938, President Franklin D. Roosevelt honoured a secret agreement with Winston Churchill to transfer the American sovereignty to the British monarchy and in return Roosevelt received all support from the Special Operations Executive to be able to control American politicians. Pursuant to this agreement, president Roosevelt sent General Donovan to London for indoctrination before he has to set up the OSS, what is now called the CIA. The entire OSS program and also the CIA work under the guidelines of the Tavistock Institute. Dr. Coleman is not misunderstanding formal that all Tavistock and American foundation techniques have a single purpose: the destruction of the psychological capacity of the individual to make him complete helpless in front of the dictators of the New World Order.

Other former CIA agents also denounce what is really happening:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B2v0A5vzBPE>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=prbZdtSvfl8>

We even have an extraordinary reference, that of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy in person, denouncing that an elite puts everything in place to dominate the world and that he opposes it with all the means at his disposal and he asks every citizen to be vigilant for this threat and he asks the media to inform the public.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zdMbmdFOvTs>

Here is an excerpt from his statement:

For we are opposed around the world by a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy that relies primarily on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence, on infiltration instead of invasion, on subversion instead of elections, on intimidation instead of free choice, on guerrillas by night instead of armies by day. It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly knit, highly efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations. Its preparations are concealed, not published. Its mistakes are buried, not headlined. Its dissenters are silenced, not praised. No expenditure is questioned, no rumor is printed, no secret is revealed.

There is also the story of the document called 'Iron Mountain'. President John Kennedy has ordered a report on the evolution of the economy in times of peace. This report was not completed until 1967, four years after his assassination. The report reveals that in times of peace, the economy stagnates completely. This information is very upsetting to the elite (the multinationals) who are asking President Lyndon Johnson to remove this document from the public view. The report in question was published in the 1970s by one of the experts who helped draft it. Of course, all this is officially denied, is considered as pure fantasy or as conspiracy theory. Is it an astroturfing technique?

Is the population so naive to believe this madness?
Judge by yourself.

First of all, the general public is made to accept the need for the so-called ecological technologies:

Wind turbines produce energy with the wind. So, they are ecological. Really?

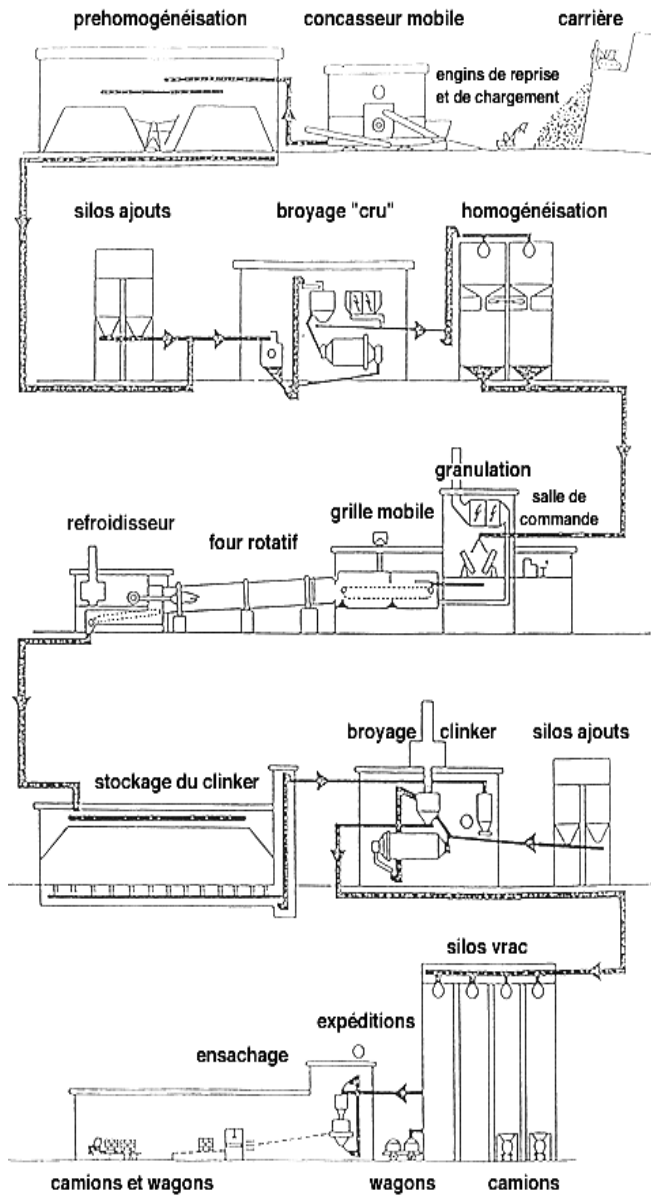

For stability, a wind turbine is anchored in a concrete support. 50 to 100 tons of concrete are poured into the soil for one wind turbine. Not very ecological ... but it's not just that..

Do you know how cement is made to create concrete?

In my career I had a period where I did technical audits of companies. One of them was a cement factory. I started to visit a quarry where huge cranes and bulldozers are busy collecting pieces of rock and then depositing them on trucks with a capacity of 75 ton, all of them emit a lot of CO2.

What is harvested from the quarries is transported to the factory to be poured into crushers that require a lot of electrical energy to break the rocks into smaller pieces.

Using conveyor belts, debris are stored in sheds for pre-homogenization. All this is motorized and powered by electricity.

Then, what is prehomogenized is transported to the grinders that are powered by high power electric motors.

From there, the material is transported to a homogenization system and then transported to a granulation system before ending up in a huge rotary kiln (almost 200m long) and operating between 850 ° C up to 1600 ° C. All this transport and the rotary kiln are powered by electricity and given the scale, consumption is not low. And then, a kiln nearly 200m long operating at high temperatures consumes of course a lot of gas also producing a lot of CO2

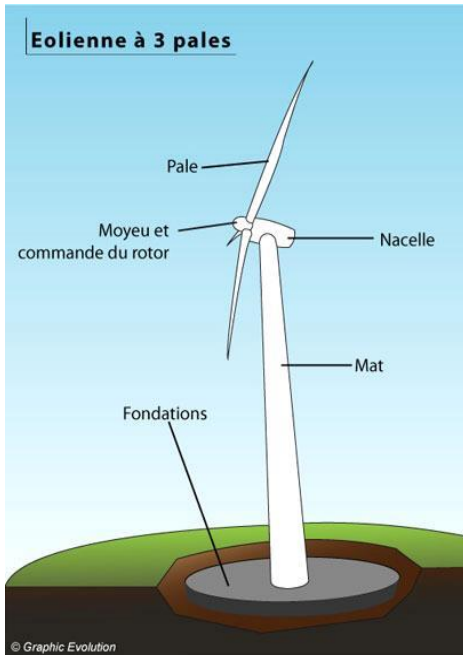

From the kiln, the material is then transported to a cooler and from there to the storage of clinkers. The clinkers are then crushed again to make a powdery mixture to which substances are added to obtain the finished product which will be stored in silos. A distribution system then distributes cement to trucks or train cars for transportation to wholesalers where the cement will be packed or prepared for shipyards ..

As you have noticed, before the cement is used, it followed an energetically very intense route with a lot of CO2 production.

And we have not talked about the production of wind turbines per se

Wind turbines are made of steel sheets and structures. The images below already give you a good impression of the energy it costs to produce them.

And then you still have to transport everything on site and do the assembly with the help of a crane. All this requires a lot of polluting energy that produces CO2. And pouring 50 to 100 tonnes of concrete into the soil is not really positive for microorganisms that are introduced in a much more aggressive environment. Cement/concrete is not a neutral product.

The efficiency of the wind turbines is not praisable, because we do not control the wind that makes the blades move.

And don't forget the damage that wind turbines can cause... thousands of birds are killed because of the blades.

These wind turbines cost a fortune to manufacture and install them and they do not permanently produce electricity. I abstain from judging on the aesthetics and the inconvenience by the noise for its entourage.

I also advise you to read:

Electric cars. The miraculous solution, hallelujah!

It is true that the electric motor has a better performance and it does not pollute directly, but we have to come back on earth. Be aware that an electric car runs on batteries that need to be recharged.

So we use facilities that produce electricity that is also polluting and that also produces CO2. It means that we simply displace the problem.

On the other hand, these batteries must be produced which also requires energy. Batteries are usually produced by companies in Asia, more precisely in Korea where other standards are applicable, less environmentally friendly.

And then what is the raw material for making electric batteries and where does it come from?

Today, two elements are in heavy demand : Cobalt and Coltan

Cobalt is used for Lithium batteries and Coltan for mobile phones. These are harvested in mines in Africa and it is mainly children who have to work for some dry bread per day, sometimes every two days. But this does not interest the 'ecological movement' that is put in place.

Can we talk about the praise of ecological folly?

To understand how we can deceive a large part of the population at this point, I refer to the French film 'I, comme Icare' in which we explain the experience that the psychologist Stanley Milgram did in the sixties to understand how human behavior works :

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lw3RCH-FFqs>

People obey an authority that responds to their conviction by manipulating them in a subtle way. A tyrant needs a million tyrants to make his dictatorship work and these little tyrants will execute their mission with 'skill and without remorse' because they do not realize that they are being manipulated and so they believe to do well.

The ruling authority will through the media and by using the techniques of Astroturf and other manipulative techniques confirm the conviction of these 'idealists' so that they will fight heart and soul for, in this case, 'saving the planet' . People who want to denounce this practice are portrayed with the same brainwashing techniques by these same authorities as opponents. Manipulated on the emotional level, more and more so-called ecologist idealists will not hesitate to manifest themselves as medieval inquisitors thus marking their importance in the fight to save the planet. Ultimately, these idealists caress their own ego by silencing others to the great benefit of the ruling authorities: divide and conquer. The attitude of a person is based on points of reference to which he is committed at all costs. This area of human psychology is well explained in the books of Ron Hubbard, a former CIA agent and founder of the Scientology organization. By ensuring its points of reference, the authority in power, keeps the hand on the idealists who are deceived by this authority.

That this technique of manipulation is very effective is demonstrated by the hundreds of examples found in the history of humanity ...

It is therefore necessary to question about the multinationals and the authorities who govern us and what they tell us.

Of course I can give even more information, but the main thing is to understand the real dangers of the installation of 5G that will reduce us to zombies and the danger of accepting that they continue to spray (chemtrails) us as if we were insects needed to be destroyed and that the military (or private militia) can change the weather at will and control us like robots.

Our strength also lies in the refusal to use the 5G and abstain from using aircrafts. Since they think in terms of profit, they will quickly understand the meaning of the word deficit.

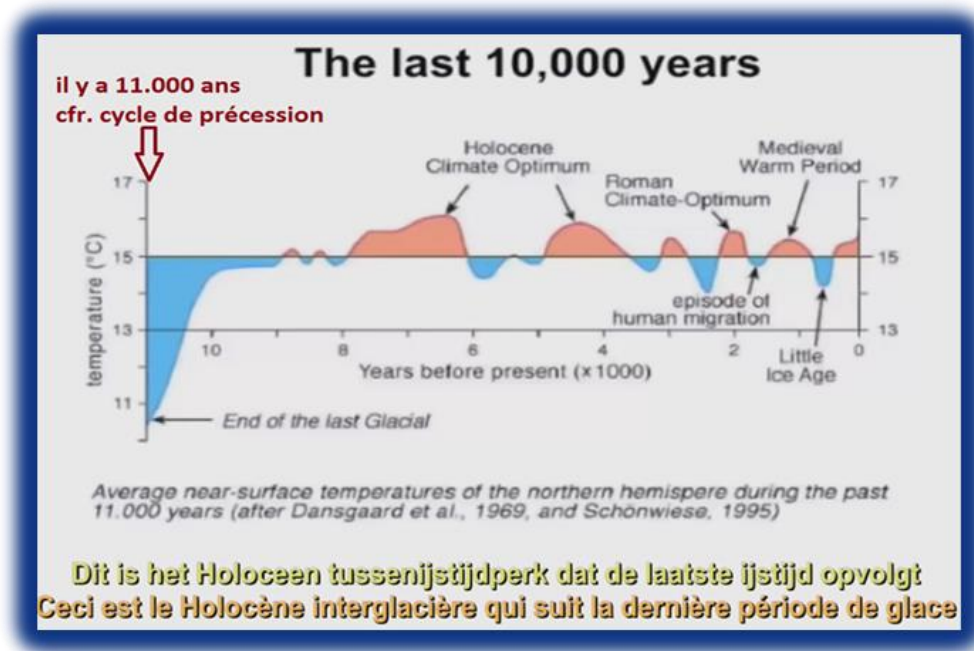

You find that there is too much pollution?

Stop the planned obsolescence and we will decrease pollution with at least 70% . This will allow families to save money and therefore one of 2 family partners will no longer have to go to work ... and therefore there will be one car less needed per family, improving the road security...

and then, let's also change the monetary system and everything will be better.
